NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE friends of the missing Dr. Cronin of Chicago are dredging Lake Michigan for his body to-day.

IN twenty-six of the Philadelphia wards the issuing of liquor licenses is completed. The number issued is 1,002, against 1,109 in 1888. There are five more wards to dispose of.

BOTH North Dakota and South Dakota elected a large majority of Republican delegates to their constitutional conventions yesterday. In Montana the result is reported to be close, and the majority in the convention is not expected to exceed five either way.

THE Associated Fanciers of the United States have received an order for 200 bull dogs for the Standard Oil Company, to be employed in guarding refineries and warehouses. The price agreed upon is $15 a head. The transaction has cornered the bull-dog market.

EMIGRANTS are now rushing to the Sioux reservation in Dakota, and the boom promises to equal that of Oklahoma within the next sixty days. An agent is arranging for the reception of 600 families as soon as the success of the Sioux commission's negotiations is assured.

THERE are 10,000 quarter sections in the Oklahoma country open for settlement, and of these only 1,800 have been filed upon. There remain, therefore, 8,200 opportunities for farms for which there are no claimants. There were probably some exaggerations in the accounts of the great rush.

EX-PRESIDENT Cleveland has leased, with the privilege of purchasing, a house at the corner of Madison avenue and Sixty-eighth street, New York. This is in Hon. Ernest H. Crosby's Assembly district. Though Mr. Cleveland is a Democrat himself, he seeks a quiet and respectable neighborhood for his good wife.

IT was decided in Judge Coxe's court at Rochester yesterday, that Lester B. Faulkner, the once notable Democrat and chairman of the state committee of that party, would have to stand trial for bank wrecking. Faulkner's political influence has sufficed to enable him to elude justice for a year or more, but the toils are beginning to tighten.

THE Assembly passed the Vedder liquor tax bill yesterday. It had already passed the Senate. The Governor can now choose between this and the Excise Commission bill, if he is really anxious for fairer taxation of the liquor traffic. Or he can veto both or allow them to die by the pocket veto if adjournment takes place to-morrow.

A LAW has been passed in Pennsylvania and is now in operation which forbids the sale of cigarettes to persons under 16 years old, and heavy penalties are provided. The boys have accordingly taken to clay pipes, and it is likely that their health will be improved, as good smoking-tobacco is supposed to be less fatal than the murderous cigarette.

THE English Brewing Syndicate has bought George Ringler's brewery in New York, price $9,500,000. Mr. Ringler remains in charge at a salary of $10,000. The English syndicate will soon be in full charge of the government of the state of New York, because of the dependence of Gov. Hill upon the great political influence of their brew.

"YOU suffer the death punishment by being executed by electricity," is the formula used by Judge Childs in sentencing William Kemmler of Buffalo yesterday. It is a little clumsy and circuitous, but the prisoner understands it, and the electrical apparatus will make no mistake. The business of murder does not increase in safety by the change of the law.

POSTMASTER VANCOTT calls for $250,000 with which to increase the facilities of the New York Postoffice. Postmaster Pearson killed himself by doing the work that he could not hire a clerk to do because of the cheese paring policy of a Democratic Congress. Mr. VanCott is no such man, and he has no such party to deal with. The postoffice will be run as it ought to be, the necessary money will be provided, and the profit over expenditure will increase proportionately.

EMIGRANTS are wanted so urgently in the South American republic of Colombia that the government offers to pay the passage of a settler on shipboard and to any point in the interior where he wishes to locate, and will give him 250 acres of land, a cow, two pigs, a plow, help him build a house, and pay him $6 a month for a time not stated. Colombia is almost under the equator, and crops grow, flowers bloom and fruits ripen the year round. And the emigrant needs to take along only a very thin suit.

THE Assembly yesterday threw out the report of Mr. Fish's committee of investigation upon the ceiling scandal and adopted that of the appropriations committee, headed by Mr. Ainsworth, instead. The vote to substitute the Ainsworth report was 63 to 44. This report contains no recommendation for the prosecution of Snaith, Sullivan and Andrews for robbing the state, and it is intimated that these worthies expended a good deal of money to carry the report through. Mr. Rice voted for and Mr. Bush against the Ainsworth report. Mr. Davidson did not vote.

JERSEY justice works with the swiftness and precision of a well-oiled engine. Andrew Grimes, a sailor, was put on trial at May's Landing last Monday for the murder of John Martin on board the coasting schooner Annie Carll on last Christmas day. Thirty hours after the trial began the jury brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree, and in just one minute more Judge Reed had sentenced him to be hanged on the 20th of June. The murder was committed because Martin awakened Grimes from a nap. The latter sprang up in fury, chased Martin into the cabin, cut through the closed door with his knife, and then dispatched the offender with the same weapon. The crime was committed while the vessel lay in the inlet at Atlantic City.

A DEPARTMENT DECISION

In Reference to a Pension That Will Interest Old Soldiers.

THE SHAH OF PERSIA'S TOUR.

IN NEW-YORK STATE LEGISLATURE.

To-Day Said to be the Last Working Day of the Session.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 15.—In the Assembly to-day the Speaker announced that to-day was practically the last working day of the session. He said about 130 bills still remained on the desk ready for final passage. These could all be passed if the members would be attentive and respond on the first roll call.

Hornidge rose to a question of privilege, saying he was not recorded on the Journal yesterday on the question of adopting the Appropriation Committees' report as a substitute for that for the Fish Committee in the ceiling matter and voted in the negative.

The compulsory education bill came from the Senate as amended and was referred to the Committee on Public Education.

Bills passed: Ives', amending the act for the incorporation of clubs; McNaughton's, amending the code relative to attachments; Robertson's, amending the code relative to trial jurors; Robertson's, amending the code relative to the payment of creditors and legatees; McNaughton's, amending the code relative to reports of Referees in Surrogate's Courts; Ryon's, authorizing the Troy Common Council to provide a site for a soldiers' monument. Rhodes', amending the act for the organization and regulation of trust companies; Donaldson's, amending the charter of Stillwater; Depeyster's, amending the act taxing gifts, legacies and collateral inheritances, making the law retroactive to 1886, so far as it relates to legacies to adopted children.

When the dressed beef bill was announced for final passage Saxton attacked it as contrary to the provisions of the United States Constitution. If such a law could be passed with respect to dressed beef, it could be with respect to anything else. The result would be retaliatory legislation in all the states of the Union. Its sanitary principle was a mere pretense. Its object was to prohibit the importation of dressed beef from other states to raise the price of home beef.

Nixon, the introducer of the bill, attacked the dressed beef trust, and declared laws similar to this had been passed in many states and were in operation, with no question raised as to their constitutionality.

Green offered an amendment, which was adopted, providing that nothing in the act shall apply to cattle, sheep or lambs raised in this State. The bill was rejected; ayes, 23; noes, 80.

Bills passed: Fassett's female factory inspection bill; Husted's, appropriating $372,000 for improving the sanitary condition of the Capitol, completing the western stair-case and making repairs to the golden corridor and other portions of the building; M. A. Smith's, for a bridge over the Delaware River at Fremont, Sullivan County.

Speaker Cole's bill, appropriating $60,000 for a Normal and Training School at Watkins, was taken up.

Sloan protested against erecting more Normal Schools. There were already 10 in the State, and in them there was room for many more students.

Fasset said it would baffle the ingenuity of any man to devise a scheme which costs more money than the Normal School system. He hoped this and every other Normal School bill would be defeated, because they were not needed by the educational interest of the State. The bill was passed, 23 to 4; Fasset, Linson, Sloan and Walker.

Laughlin's bill, permitting Buffalo Common Council to issue $80,000 bonds for the purchase of a market site was passed.

Hamilton's motion to take up his cable bill was lost, 25 to 48.

Larmon's motion to take up his tax bill was lost, 28 to 51.

Blumenthal's motion to reconsider the vote by which his bill permitting the New-York Catholic Protectory and Sheltering Arms to participate in the distribution of the Common School Fund was lost; ayes 57; noes 28.

Crosby reported from the Committee on Charitable Institutions Fassett's bill to promote the care, custody and curative treatment of the pauper and indigent insane, except in New-York, Kings and Monroe counties. Crosby moved to go into Committee on the bill. Lost; ayes, 50; noes, 52.

Coon reported his compulsory education bill. The Senate amendments were concurred in and the bill passed; ayes, 75; noes, 32.

Gallup reported for the consideration of the House, from the Canal Committee, Langbein's $750,000 canal improvement bill, Gallup, Little, Coon, Groat and Baker dissenting and in favor of the $600,000 bill. On motion of Shehan and by a two-thirds vote, the House considered the bill in Committee, reported progress and it was ordered to a third reading. Gallup endeavored to move to substitute the $600,000 bill, but was prevented by a point of order.

Sheehan offered a resolution, which was adopted by unanimous consent, directing that the $750,000 canal appropriation bill shall be placed on final passage this evening.

IN THE STATE SENATE.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 15.—In the Senate to-day Blumenthal's general escheat bill came from the Assembly, but Robertson objected to its being received, because a similar bill had already been killed by the Senate.

Fassett's bill for the appointment by the Governor, with the consent of the Senate, of three competent persons as Commissioners to frame and report to the next Legislature general acts on the subject of villages, banks, taxes and the poor, was passed.

Bills passed: McNaughton's, amending Binghamton's charter.

Seven bills, providing for normal and training schools, were reported favorable from the Finance Committee, Sloan and Fassett dissenting to all of them and Linson to part of them.

Bills passed: Gallup's, two annual appropriation bills; Laughlin's, relative to the acquisition of lands for public markets in Buffalo; Gallup's, relative to the commitment, custody and discharge of the insane; Comstock's, for Government building in Watertown; Pearsall's, for fishways in the dam over the Chenango River at Chenango; Peck's, relative to Union free schools at Cortland; Guenther's, appropriating $20,000 for an iron bridge over the Tonawanda Creek at Tonawanda; R. P. Bush's Elmira sewer bond bill; Husted's, allowing Cornell College to use a portion of the moneys appropriated by the General Government for the establishment of agricultural colleges.

Bills passed: McAdams', appropriating $35,000 for a Normal and Training School at Whitesboro; Cronin's, appropriating $60,000 for a Normal School at Jamaica, Queens County; Batcheller's, appropriating $60,000 for a Normal and Training School at Saratoga Springs; Messick's, appropriating $25,000 for a Normal and Training School with Academic Department at Fairfield; Mase's, relative to the Trustees of the John Guy Vassar Asylum at Poughkeepsie; DePeyster's, relative to the Associated Fire Department of Poughkeepsie; DePeyster's, for the preservation of moose, wild deer, fish and game; Fassett's, appropriating $6,000 to pay Women Factory Inspectors to be appointed under the bill passed yesterday; Peck's resolution providing for a Committee of Five to examine into the alleged competition of Normal Schools with Academies, and report to the next Legislature.

The Governor sent in the following nominations, which were confirmed: Edwin Allen, of Seneca Castle, to be Loan Commissioner of Ontario County, vice Murray Benham; Oliver G. Sherwin, of Penn Yan, to be Trustee of the Willard Asylum, vice Darius Ogden, deceased; Simon Smith, of Ithaca, to be Commissioner of the State Meteorological Bureau.

Bills passed: Moody's, amending the charter of Geneva; Mase's dog tax bill, with amendments; McNaughton's, relative to commitments to reformatory institutions; Cottrell's, amending the charter of Angelica; Lewis', relative to the Binghamton Fire Department; McMaster's, relative to the claim of Steuben County on account of expenses for prosecuting Thomas Heding.

BILLS THAT HAVE BECOME LAWS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 15.—The following bills have become laws:

Chapter 284, extending the time for the completion of the Schenectady, Albany & North Adams Railroad for two years from date.

Chapter 285, authorizing the Board of Estimate and Apportionment of New-York City to appropriate $1,000 for the use of the Veteran Firemen's Association, of New-York City, in participating in the Washington Inaugural Centennial Celebration.

Chapter 287, amending acts of 1887 and 1888 relative to making the St. Lawrence County Clerk's office salaried. [Not signed.]

Chapter 286, providing for the construction and maintenance of an exterior street along a portion of East River in New-York City. [Not signed.]

Chapter 288, altering the Commissioners' map of Brooklyn by reducing the width of East New-York Avenue. [Not signed.]

Body, With Weights Attached, Found.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, May 15.—The body of a man that had been kept at the bottom of the River with heavy weights was washed ashore at One Hundred and Thirtieth-street, this morning. A chunk of iron weighing over 20 pounds was tied to the right leg with packing cord, also a black silk umbrella. The man was about 30 years old and well dressed. There was a lady's gold watch in his pocket and in his scarf a gold pin. The police are endeavoring to establish his identity.

Shah's Triumphal Tour in Russia.

By Cable to The Freeman.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 15.—The Shah of Persia, who is now journeying from Teheran to St. Petersburg, is meeting with a grand reception in Russia. At Erivan the streets through which he passed were lined with troops and at several points there were triumphal arches bearing the inscription: "To the Shah's sacred person." The entire town was brilliantly illuminated at night.

What Secretary Proctor Says.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Secretary Proctor has returned from his Western trip looking refreshed and in good health. He is satisfied with the results of his observation. In a few days Secretary Proctor will visit West Point, N. Y. He says the subject of issuing a proclamation of amnesty to deserters has not been discussed or considered by the President and himself.

Secretaries go on a Pleasure Trip.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Secretaries Blaine and Tracy with a number of officers of the State Department, left Washington this morning for General Agnew's country home, "Naccrema," near Baltimore.

Of Interest to Old Soldiers.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Assistant Secretary Bussey to-day overruled a former adverse decision of the Interior Department, and allowed a pension of aggravation of disease in the service in the case of Rudolph M. Montgomery, late of Company A, One Hundred and Twentieth Ohio Volunteers.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, May 15.—The stock market was again quiet and listless this morning, the fluctuations being extremely small, and except for a few shares the tone was rather hesitating, although some stocks made fractional advances. Union Pacific and Omaha were each ⅛ per cent. below their last night's prices. At the opening Oregon Transcontinental, New-England, Atchison and Union Pacific were the active shares, while St. Paul and Burlington were comparatively quiet, and the rest of the list dull. The tone of the dealings was firm and Missouri Pacific displayed considerable strength, moving up a fraction, but New-England was the leading stock and advanced to 45⅛, but later in the hour prices gave way again and Missouri Pacific retired below its opening prices as did several others, Big Four losing ⅛. At 11 o'clock the market was quiet and rather heavy.

ROMANCE IN THE SOCIETY ISLANDS.

U. S. Consul Jacob T. Doty to Soon Wed the Princess Ralana.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—A year ago Jacob T. Doty was transferred from the Consulate at Bermuda to that of Tahiti, Society Islands. Doty has fallen in love with the Princess Ralana, of Tahiti. His love has been reciprocated and the pair will soon be married. The Princess is a beautiful and accomplished lady, 18 years of age, and a perfect blonde. She is the daughter of Lord and Lady Dancy, her mother being a native Tahitian Princess and her father an English nobleman. She has had all the advantages of education in France, Germany and England. She is the possessor of immense wealth in her own right. The Princess has not lacked suitors for her hand, all of whom, including the Earl of Dulley, she has refused. Lord Dancy was anxious to have his daughter marry a scion of the English peerage, but gracefully yielded to the wishes of his only child to accept as his son-in-law a sovereign American citizen. Consul Doty is 22 years of age. As a boy he was a Page in the United States Senate. His father was a prominent citizen of Brooklyn.

Father Eagan's Testimony.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, May 15.—Father Egan testified before the Parnell Commission to-day that the leading men of Loughrea belonged to the branch League. No serious crime had been committed from the time of the formation of the Loughrea branch until it was suppressed, except the murder of policeman Lynton. This crime had been condemned at a meeting of the League and witness had denounced it from the altar of his church.

British Ship Altmoore Wrecked.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, May 15.—The British ship Altmoore, Captain Weeks, from Sydney, N. S. W., April 8, for San Francisco, has been wrecked at Neira Island, in the South Pacific. The Captain and a portion of the crew have landed at Levuka. The First Officer was drowned. A boat containing the remainder of the crew and the passengers is missing.

Ferry-boats Collide.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.—The ferry-boat Peerless, plying between this City and Gloucester, N. J., collided with the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad ferry-boat J. S. Schultz, to-day badly injuring five young women passengers on the Schultz, and carrying away a portion of the ladies' cabin.

More Breweries Purchased.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

DETROIT, May 15.—The titles to the brewing plants of A. Goebel & Company, the Bavarian Brewing Company, the Endass Brewery, and the Brewery and Bottling Works of Jacob Mann yesterday passed into the hands of John Renter Grant, of London. The properties are worth about $275,000.

I BELIEVE IT YET.

I.

There's some useful information that I got from mother dear,
One evening when I went my girl to see;
She told me I had better be tasteful in my dress,
If from bitter disappointment I'd be free.
She told that Marks Jacobs made suits the handsomest;
That to his store was just the place to go,
That with his help I'd surely win the girl I loved best:
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me that a manly man should dress in manly style,
And always like a gentleman should go;
That for this service I could trust Marks Jacobs all the while;
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

II.

And so I went to Jacobs' store, 184 The Strand,
The next morning at the rising of the sun,
And picked me out the finest that this artist had on hand,
And in just two days the suit complete was done.
Then I hied me to the mansion where lived my Katie Brown,
And her greeting was the sweetest man can know;
She said I was the handsomest, the noblest man in town;
I believed it, for my sweetheart told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me something better yet; she said she would be mine,
That through this life with me she'd gladly go,
If I would wear Marks Jacobs' suits, so fitting, neat and fine;
I believed it, for my Katie told me so.

Marks Jacobs.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE friends of the missing Dr. Cronin of Chicago are dredging Lake Michigan for his body to-day.

IN twenty-six of the Philadelphia wards the issuing of liquor licenses is completed. The number issued is 1,002, against 1,109 in 1888. There are five more wards to dispose of.

BOTH North Dakota and South Dakota elected a large majority of Republican delegates to their constitutional conventions yesterday. In Montana the result is reported to be close, and the majority in the convention is not expected to exceed five either way.

THE Associated Fanciers of the United States have received an order for 200 bull dogs for the Standard Oil Company, to be employed in guarding refineries and warehouses. The price agreed upon is $15 a head. The transaction has cornered the bull-dog market.

EMIGRANTS are now rushing to the Sioux reservation in Dakota, and the boom promises to equal that of Oklahoma within the next sixty days. An agent is arranging for the reception of 600 families as soon as the success of the Sioux commission's negotiations is assured.

THERE are 10,000 quarter sections in the Oklahoma country open for settlement, and of these only 1,800 have been filed upon. There remain, therefore, 8,200 opportunities for farms for which there are no claimants. There were probably some exaggerations in the accounts of the great rush.

EX-PRESIDENT Cleveland has leased, with the privilege of purchasing, a house at the corner of Madison avenue and Sixty-eighth street, New York. This is in Hon. Ernest H. Crosby's Assembly district. Though Mr. Cleveland is a Democrat himself, he seeks a quiet and respectable neighborhood for his good wife.

IT was decided in Judge Coxe's court at Rochester yesterday that Lester B. Faulkner, the once notable Democrat and chairman of the state committee of that party, would have to stand trial for bank wrecking. Faulkner's political influence has sufficed to enable him to elude justice for a year or more, but the toils are beginning to tighten.

THE Assembly passed the Vedder liquor tax bill yesterday. It had already passed the Senate. The Governor can now choose between this and the Excise Commission bill, if he is really anxious for fairer taxation of the liquor traffic. Or he can veto both or allow them to die by the pocket veto if adjournment takes place to-morrow.

A LAW has been passed in Pennsylvania and is now in operation which forbids the sale of cigarettes to persons under 16 years old, and heavy penalties are provided. The boys have accordingly taken to clay pipes, and it is likely that their health will be improved, as good smoking-tobacco is supposed to be less fatal than the murderous cigarette.

THE English Brewing Syndicate has bought George Ringler's brewery in New York, price $9,500,000. Mr. Ringler remains in charge at a salary of $10,000. The English syndicate will soon be in full charge of the government of the state of New York, because of the dependence of Gov. Hill upon the great political influence of their brew.

"YOU suffer the death punishment by being executed by electricity," is the formula used by Judge Childs in sentencing William Kemmler of Buffalo yesterday. It is a little clumsy and circuitous, but the prisoner understands it, and the electrical apparatus will make no mistake. The business of murder does not increase in safety by the change of the law.

POSTMASTER VANCOTT calls for $250,000 with which to increase the facilities of the New York Postoffice. Postmaster Pearson killed himself by doing the work that he could not hire a clerk to do because of the cheese paring policy of a Democratic Congress. Mr. VanCott is no such man, and he has no such party to deal with. The postoffice will be run as it ought to be, the necessary money will be provided, and the profit over expenditure will increase proportionately.

EMIGRANTS are wanted so urgently in the South American republic of Colombia that the government offers to pay the passage of a settler on shipboard and to any point in the interior where he wishes to locate, and will give him 250 acres of land, a cow, two pigs, a plow, help him build a house, and pay him $6 a month for a time not stated. Colombia is almost under the equator, and crops grow, flowers bloom and fruits ripen the year round. And the emigrant needs to take along only a very thin suit.

THE Assembly yesterday threw out there. port of Mr. Fish's committee of investigation upon the ceiling scandal and adopted that of the appropriations committee, headed by Mr. Ainsworth, instead. The vote to substitute the Ainsworth report was 68 to 44. This report contains no recommendation for the prosecution of Snaith, Sullivan and Andrews for robbing the state, and it is intimated that these worthies expended a good deal of money to carry the report through. Mr. Rice voted for and Mr. Bush against the Ainsworth report. Mr. Davidson did not vote.

JERSEY justice works with the swiftness and precision of a well-oiled engine. Andrew Grimes, a sailor, was put on trial at May's Landing last Monday for the murder of John Martin on board the coasting schooner Annie Carll on last Christmas day. Thirty hours after the trial began the jury brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree, and in just one minute more Judge Reed had sentenced him to be hanged on the 20th of June. The murder was committed because Martin awakened Grimes from a nap. The latter sprang up in fury, chased Martin into the cabin, cut through the closed door with his knife, and then dispatched the offender with the same weapon. The crime was committed while the vessel lay in the inlet at Atlantic City.

The Gist of What Was Said And Done To-Day.

A DEPARTMENT DECISION

In Reference to a Pension That Will Interest Old Soldiers.

THE SHAH OF PERSIA'S TOUR.

IN NEW-YORK STATE LEGISLATURE.

To-Day Said to be the Last Working Day of the Session.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 15.—In the Assembly to-day the Speaker announced that to-day was practically the last working day of the session. He said about 130 bills still remained on the desk ready for final passage. These could all be passed if the members would be attentive and respond on the first roll call.

Hornidge rose to a question of privilege, saying he was not recorded on the Journal yesterday on the question of adopting the Appropriation Committees' report as a substitute for that for the Fish Committee in the ceiling matter and voted in the negative.

The compulsory education bill came from the Senate as amended and was referred to the Committee on Public Education.

Bills passed: Ives', amending the act for the incorporation of clubs; McNaughton's, amending the code relative to attachments; Robertson's, amending the code relative to trial jurors; Robertson's, amending the code relative to the payment of creditors and legatees; McNaughton's, amending the code relative to reports of Referees in Surrogate's Courts; Ryon's, authorizing the Troy Common Council to provide a site for a soldiers' monument. Rhodes', amending the act for the organization and regulation of trust companies; Donaldson's, amending the charter of Stillwater; Depeyster's, amending the act taxing gifts, legacies and collateral inheritances, making the law retroactive to 1886, so far as it relates to legacies to adopted children.

When the dressed beef bill was announced for final passage Saxton attacked it as contrary to the provisions of the United States Constitution. If such a law could be passed with respect to dressed beef, it could be with respect to anything else. The result would be retaliatory legislation in all the states of the Union. Its sanitary principle was a mere pretense. Its object was to prohibit the importation of dressed beef from other states to raise the price of home beef.

Nixon, the introducer of the bill, attacked the dressed beef trust, and declared laws similar to this had been passed in many states and were in operation, with no question raised as to their constitutionality.

Green offered an amendment, which was adopted, providing that nothing in the act shall apply to cattle, sheep or lambs raised in this State. The bill was rejected; ayes, 23; noes, 80.

Bills passed: Fassett's female factory inspection bill; Husted's, appropriating $372,000 for improving the sanitary condition of the Capitol, completing the western stair-case and making repairs to the golden corridor and other portions of the building; M. A. Smith's, for a bridge over the Delaware River at Fremont, Sullivan County.

Speaker Cole's bill, appropriating $60,000 for a Normal and Training School at Watkins, was taken up.

Sloan protested against erecting more Normal Schools. There were already 10 in the State, and in them there was room for many more students.

Fasset said it would baffle the ingenuity of any man to devise a scheme which costs more money than the Normal School system. He hoped this and every other Normal School bill would be defeated, because they were not needed by the educational interest of the State. The bill was passed, 23 to 4; Fasset, Linson, Sloan and Walker.

Laughlin's bill, permitting Buffalo Common Council to issue $80,000 bonds for the purchase of a market site was passed.

Hamilton's motion to take up his cable bill was lost, 25 to 48.

Larmon's motion to take up his tax bill was lost, 28 to 51.

Blumenthal's motion to reconsider the vote by which his bill permitting the New-York Catholic Protectory and Sheltering Arms to participate in the distribution of the Common School Fund was lost: ayes 57; noes 28.

Crosby reported from the Committee on Charitable Institutions Fassett's bill to promote the care, custody and curative treatment of the pauper and indigent insane, except in New-York, Kings and Monroe counties. Crosby moved to go into Committee on the bill. Lost; ayes, 50; noes, 52.

Coon reported his compulsory education bill. The Senate amendments were concurred in and the bill passed; ayes, 75; noes, 32.

Gallup reported for the consideration of the House, from the Canal Committee, Langbein's $750,000 canal improvement bill, Gallup, Little, Coon, Groat and Baker dissenting and in favor of the $600,000 bill. On motion of Shehan and by a two-thirds vote, the House considered the bill in Committee, reported progress and it was ordered to a third reading. Gallup endeavored to move to substitute the $600,000 bill, but was prevented by a point of order.

Sheehan offered a resolution, which was adopted by unanimous consent, directing that the $750,000 canal appropriation bill shall be placed on final passage this evening.

IN THE STATE SENATE.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 15.—In the Senate to-day Blumenthal's general escheat bill came from the Assembly, but Robertson objected to its being received, because a similar bill had already been killed by the Senate.

Fassett's bill for the appointment by the Governor, with the consent of the Senate, of three competent persons as Commissioners to frame and report to the next Legislature general acts on the subject of villages, banks, taxes and the poor, was passed.

Bills passed: McNaughton's, amending Binghamton's charter.

Seven bills, providing for normal and training schools, were reported favorable from the Finance Committee, Sloan and Fassett dissenting to all of them and Linson to part of them.

Bills passed: Gallup's, two annual appropriation bills; Laughlin's, relative to the acquisition of lands for public markets in Buffalo; Gallup's, relative to the commitment, custody and discharge of the insane; Comstock's, for Government building in Watertown; Pearsall's, for fishways in the dam over the Chenango River at Chenango; Peck's, relative to Union free schools at Cortland; Guenther's, appropriating $20,000 for an iron bridge over the Tonawanda Creek at Tonawanda; R. P. Bush's Elmira sewer bond bill; Husted's, allowing Cornell College to use a portion of the moneys appropriated by the General Government for the establishment of agricultural colleges.

Bills passed: McAdams', appropriating $35,000 for a Normal and Training School at Whitesboro; Cronin's, appropriating $60,000 for a Normal School at Jamaica, Queens County; Batcheller's, appropriating $60,000 for a Normal and Training School at Saratoga Springs; Messick's, appropriating $25,000 for a Normal and Training School with Academic Department at Fairfield; Mase's, relative to the Trustees of the John Guy Vassar Asylum at Poughkeepsie; DePeyster's, relative to the Associated Fire Department of Poughkeepsie; DePeyster's, for the preservation of moose, wild deer, fish and game; Fassett's, appropriating $6,000 to pay Women Factory Inspectors to be appointed under the bill passed yesterday; Peck's resolution providing for a Committee of Five to examine into the alleged competition of Normal Schools with Academies, and report to the next Legislature.

The Governor sent in the following nominations, which were confirmed: Edwin Allen, of Seneca Castle, to be Loan Commissioner of Ontario County, vice Murray Benham; Oliver G. Sherwin, of Penn Yan, to be Trustee of the Willard Asylum, vice Darius Ogden, deceased; Simon Smith, of Ithaca, to be Commissioner of the State Meteorological Bureau.

Bills passed: Moody's, amending the charter of Geneva; Mase's dog tax bill, with amendments; McNaughton's, relative to commitments to reformatory institutions; Cottrell's, amending the charter of Angelica; Lewis', relative to the Binghamton Fire Department; McMaster's, relative to the claim of Steuben County on account of expenses for prosecuting Thomas Heding.

BILLS THAT HAVE BECOME LAWS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 15.—The following bills have become laws:

Chapter 284, extending the time for the completion of the Schenectady, Albany & North Adams Railroad for two years from date.

Chapter 285, authorizing the Board of Estimate and Apportionment of New-York City to appropriate $1,000 for the use of the Veteran Firemen's Association, of New-York City, in participating in the Washington Inaugural Centennial Celebration.

Chapter 287, amending acts of 1887 and 1888 relative to making the St. Lawrence County Clerk's office salaried. [Not signed.]

Chapter 286, providing for the construction and maintenance of an exterior street along a portion of East River in New-York City. [Not signed.]

Chapter 288, altering the Commissioners' map of Brooklyn by reducing the width of East New-York Avenue. [Not signed.]

Body, With Weights Attached, Found.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, May 15.—The body of a man that had been kept at the bottom of the River with heavy weights was washed ashore at One Hundred and Thirtieth-street, this morning. A chunk of iron weighing over 20 pounds was tied to the right leg with packing cord, also a black silk umbrella. The man was about 30 years old and well dressed. There was a lady's gold watch in his pocket and in his scarf a gold pin. The police are endeavoring to establish his identity.

Shah's Triumphal Tour in Russia.

By Cable to The Freeman.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 15.—The Shah of Persia, who is now journeying from Teheran to St. Petersburg, is meeting with a grand reception in Russia. At Erivan the streets through which he passed were lined with troops and at several points there were triumphal arches bearing the inscription: "To the Shah's sacred person." The entire town was brilliantly illuminated at night.

What Secretary Proctor Says.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Secretary Proctor has returned from his Western trip looking refreshed and in good health. He is satisfied with the results of his observation. In a few days Secretary Proctor will visit West Point, N. Y. He says the subject of issuing a proclamation of amnesty to deserters has not been discussed or considered by the President and himself.

Secretaries go on a Pleasure Trip.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Secretaries Blaine and Tracy with a number of officers of the State Department, left Washington this morning for General Agnew's country home, "Naccrema," near Baltimore.

Of Interest to Old Soldiers.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Assistant Secretary Bussey to-day overruled a former adverse decision of the Interior Department, and allowed a pension of aggravation of disease in the service in the case of Rudolph M. Montgomery, late of Company A, One Hundred and Twentieth Ohio Volunteers.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, May 15.—The stock market was again quiet and listless this morning, the fluctuations being extremely small, and except for a few shares the tone was rather hesitating, although some stocks made fractional advances. Union Pacific and Omaha were each ⅛ per cent. below their last night's prices. At the opening Oregon Transcontinental, New-England, Atchison and Union Pacific were the active shares, while St. Paul and Burlington were comparatively quiet, and the rest of the list dull. The tone of the dealings was firm and Missouri Pacific displayed considerable strength, moving up a fraction, but New-England was the leading stock and advanced to 45⅛, but later in the hour prices gave way again and Missouri Pacific retired below its opening prices as did several others, Big Four losing ⅛. At 11 o'clock the market was quiet and rather heavy.

ROMANCE IN THE SOCIETY ISLANDS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—A year ago Jacob T. Doty was transferred from the Consulate at Bermuda to that of Tahiti, Society Islands. Doty has fallen in love with the Princess Ralana, of Tahiti. His love has been reciprocated and the pair will soon be married. The Princess is a beautiful and accomplished lady, 18 years of age, and a perfect blonde. She is the daughter of Lord and Lady Dancy, her mother being a native Tahitian Princess and her father an English nobleman. She has had all the advantages of education in France, Germany and England. She is the possessor of immense wealth in her own right. The Princess has not lacked suitors for her hand, all of whom, including the Earl of Dulley, she has refused. Lord Dancy was anxious to have his daughter marry a scion of the English peerage, but gracefully yielded to the wishes of his only child to accept as his son-in-law a sovereign American citizen. Consul Doty is 22 years of age. As a boy he was a Page in the United States Senate. His father was a prominent citizen of Brooklyn.

Father Eagan's Testimony.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, May 15.—Father Egan testified before the Parnell Commission to-day that the leading men of Loughrea belonged to the branch League. No serious crime had been committed from the time of the formation of the Loughrea branch until it was suppressed, except the murder of policeman Lynton. This crime had been condemned at a meeting of the League and witness had denounced it from the altar of his church.

I BELIEVE IT YET.

I.

There's some useful information that I got from mother dear,
One evening when I went my girl to see;
She told me I had better be tasteful in my dress,
If from bitter disappointment I'd be free.
She told that Marks Jacobs made suits the handsomest;
That to his store was just the place to go,
That with his help I'd surely win the girl I loved best:
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me that a manly man should dress in manly style,
And always like a gentleman should go;
That for this service I could trust Marks Jacobs all the while;
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

II.

And so I went to Jacobs' store, 184 The Strand,
The next morning at the rising of the sun,
And picked me out the finest that this artist had on hand,
And in just two days the suit complete was done.
Then I hied me to the mansion where lived my Katie Brown,
And her greeting was the sweetest man can know;
She said I was the handsomest, the noblest man in town;
I believed it, for my sweetheart told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me something better yet; she said she would be mine,
That through this life with me she'd gladly go,
If I would wear Marks Jacobs' suits, so fitting, neat and fine;
I believed it, for my Katie told me so.

Marks Jacobs.

THE WOES OF THE TITLED BRIDES.

Some weeks ago we referred to the sorrows of a young heiress of Pittsburg, who married the Count di Montercale of Italy. When she arrived with him at his home in the sunny land she learned that he was the son of the real Count di Montercale's gardener, and that he had stolen his master's title for speculative uses in America. His cruelties, after he had squandered her money, caused her to seek protection from the American legation at Naples, and she was assisted to return to America. She had been in Pittsburg but a little while before her husband appeared on the scene and demanded money as the price of letting her alone. When he found that the money was not forthcoming and that the laws of the United States would protect her from his persecutions, he went around the city trying to sell to the newspapers the story of their troubles which he had written up. He was finally provided with passage money for Europe by the unhappy woman's friends, while she remained in Pittsburg to prosecute her divorce suit.

The marriage of Miss Constable, a wealthy young lady of Baltimore, to the Baron Von Sucrow of Berlin while pursuing her studies in Paris, made a big social sensation a few months ago. The Baron came to this country with his bride, and lived well for a time upon her income. As money grew scarcer he informed her that he must return to Germany with her, to placate his irate father, who, since his marriage, had kept a firm grip upon several millions that belonged to himself. He was sure that the sight of his bride's beauty would melt the stony heart of the old gentleman, who was a noble Baron also. The bride gave him the money with which to buy the tickets for the voyage, and he went out in search of a ship. Weeks went by, but he did not return. At length a letter from him was received, informing her that he had decided to go home alone. The lady took the first steamer and sailed for Europe. Arrived in London, she called upon Baring Brothers, who, the Baron had told her, were his bankers. They had never heard the name of Von Sucrow, neither had the person whom she described as her husband ever had any dealings with them. The bride traveled on to Berlin, only to learn that the Von Sucrow family was equally unknown there. She started with a broken heart on her return voyage, and at London obtained from the American legation a loan to pay her passage home. At last accounts she had not yet reached Baltimore.

Still another disappointed, disgusted and heart-broken woman is Madame Gaston de Fontenilliat, who until December, 1887, was Miss Minnie Smith of New York. The young French nobleman whom she married was the brother of a real Baron and an officer in the army of France, while the lady is herself a sister of Mrs. Wm. K. Vanderbilt. Soon after her marriage, and while living in Paris, Mme. Fontenilliat received a letter from one Mme. Odette, informing her that her husband was indebted to her in the sum of 40,000 francs, and threatening to make things lively for his new family unless the money was paid. Mme. Fontenilliat investigated the matter sufficiently to learn the character of the Odette woman, and the particulars of the intrigue in which her husband had been engaged with her, and then raised the money to meet her demands. But in the meantime Odette had reported the husband's conduct to his Colonel, and he was dismissed from the service in disgrace. He was now penniless and without income, and the couple came to New-York, where the noble husband managed for a time to earn $7 a week. But his wife soon detected him in appropriating and pawning her jewels, and he was also accused of using the property of other inmates of the boarding house in the same way. So at last the bride separated herself from her husband, and knows him no more. The outcome in this case, as in the others, will undoubtedly be a divorce suit.

These cases of disappointment might be multiplied indefinitely by going back a little further in the history of American girls who have accepted foreign husbands and swapped their fortunes for titles. The titles of our American noblemen may seem simpler and may not be shared by their wives, but they are often worth marrying after all. A young woman who came to this city several years ago had the good fortune to contract a happy marriage, and her first letter home in announcement of the event carried great joy to her friends, for she told them that her husband was a captain. She did not then explain, nor has she found occasion to do so since, the difference between a captain in the English army and a captain on the Delaware & Hudson Canal. But the man was honest, industrious and successful, and the good woman would not shrink from a comparison of her condition with that of the average of American girls whose European husbands sport the titles of Counts, Barons, Dukes, Earls, Lords, Princes, etc.

FEDERAL ARCHITECTURE.

Supervising Architect Windrim has been giving expression to some opinions concerning the construction of government buildings which hold out a cheering prospect of improvement in the value and usefulness of these important edifices. He advocates in the first place a national style of architecture, such as is adapted to the needs of the government. He would have them distinguished by some design or peculiarity of construction which would enable them to be recognized as government buildings at once. Government architecture of late years has run counter to this idea, the purpose of the designers having been evidently to present as wide a variety as possible. Hence in one town there will be the hideous Queen Anne style with its excresences jutting out on every side, in another the Gothic, the Renaissance, the Grecian, Doric, Egyptian or Swiss. Some of the effects of these are very pretty, but in most cases they are out of place with their surroundings, especially where a million-dollar building is erected in a ten-dollar town. Mr. Windrim proposes to change all this. A government building is to be a government building wherever located.

Mr. Windrim is for solidity and plainness, first, last and all the time. We hope he will be able to envolve from his idea a style of architecture distinctively American, so that we shall not have to go back to the dark ages for our designs. Our buildings should bear the stamp of endurance and permanence, like our government itself. If the money expended in "gingerbread" work, in towers, porticos, and the many varieties of excrescences that must eventually crumble away, were applied to rendering the walls more massive, the roof more secure, the entrances more impervious to the burglar's tools, and the interior more roomy and convenient, there would be improvement all around. The architecture of America should not be as shifty as a lady's dress, to be put on or off in a moment. The streets of every city show the effect of the passion for new and ever-changing designs in an absence of all uniformity and consistency. The plain but massive residence of a century ago has an humble and abashed look beside the pretentious but unsubstantial Queen Anne disfiguration of to-day, with its countless peaks and gables, its cell-like windows, its stuffy little verandas, and its abominable contrasts of paint. Let Mr. Windrim set an example for all of us, so that those who have the opportunity to follow him may be able to construct something really American and of which their descendants will not be ashamed a century hence.

THE REPUBLICAN WAY.

The state debt of Iowa is only $95,000, though the state paid its full share of the expense of the war, and in the past six years more than a million dollars has been expended for public buildings, including a soldiers' home and an insane asylum. Before the present year comes to a close the last dollar of debt will be paid. That is Iowa's way. It has always maintained Republican administration, and has never shown even a momentary weakness on the subject or the slightest leaning towards any other party.

But Iowa has one Democratic county—the county of Dubuque. Well, what of it? Why nothing, except that the county debt of this county is over $100,000 and is increasing every year, though there has not been a public improvement made in twenty years to show for it. The ring that manages the county affairs is engaged in one steady and unrelenting steal, and the tax-payers are at their mercy.

We believe the readers of THE FREEMAN have heard of similar contrasts between the Republican way and the Democratic way before. Indeed, it appears to be ever thus. But why?

PUBLIC OPINION.

Mr. Cleveland has a stronger hold upon the affection and respect of the people of the United States than any man has enjoyed since Abraham Lincoln, and the respect increases as the character of Harrison gradually unfolds itself.—St. Louis Republic.

Well, well! That is news. Isn't it strange they didn't show some of their affection and respect by re-electing him to the Presidency? And where, by the way, does one General Grant, who really did something for the country, come in?—Rochester Herald, Ind.

It was long since established that Governor D. B. Hill is the most unconscionable demagogue who ever filled an executive chair. There is but one class of people who can rely upon him, and that is the keepers of saloons, gambling hells and the very worst and most dangerous elements of American society.—Oswego Times.

It is not at all surprising that Governor Hill should veto the Saxton electoral reform bill. The hollow pretense that he favors ballot reform has been exposed time and again. The ballot reform that Governor Hill favors will never be adopted until a Legislature assembles which is made up of a majority of saloon-keepers and plug-uglies in both branches.—New-York Graphic.

The death of James B. Smith, an editor of the Springfield Republican, killed by a brother-in-law who mistook him for a burglar; the accidental death of Captain Whittaker of Mt. Vernon, who killed himself while handling a pistol, and numerous other distressing casualties which have shocked the public recently, point the truth of the old saying that a revolver is more dangerous to the owner than to any one else.—New-York Press.

Let us hear no more of D. B. Hill as a friend of "labor." The Saxton bill was of vital importance to every wageworker. On the adoption of the Australian ballot depends the question whether he might or might not run for office without mortgaging his political soul to the devil in order to raise the sinews of political warfare. And this creature of the vilest political elements in the state has said so; that the boss, the boodler and the briber shall continue to dominate New York politics.—Albany Journal.

The Assembly yesterday knocked out the Fish committee report on the ceiling investigation, and took instead Ainsworth's "white-washing" report. It was rumored that this "vindication" of the guilty parties cost them a large sum of money. Why they should have paid much is a mystery, for the new committee found very few facts not already known to the old one. But then the Fish committee asserted that there was a conspiracy to rob the state; and this Mr. Ainsworth and his friends denied, or at least thought not proved. Mr. Hitt's part in yesterday's transactions was very discreditable, but not unexpected.—Albany Express.

Governor Hill of New York has vetoed the Saxton electoral reform bill, pronouncing it in its present form an impossibility, and recommending the Legislature to enact during the present session a bill embodying at least those provisions which the Legislature and the Executive agree will tend to reduce the evils of political corruption. This is one of the most impudent addresses a Governor ever made to a Legislature. In effect, he is taking legislation out of the hands of the men chosen by the people to enact it, and assuming to impose his own notions upon them. In point of fact, D. B. Hill does not wish to diminish political corruption, or he would not make this preposterous demand.—Springfield Republican.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind-colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

SHILOH'S CURE will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

I could scarcely speak; it was almost impossible to breathe through my nostrils. Using Ely's Cream Balm a short time the trouble entirely disappeared. —J. O. Tichenor, Shoe Merchant, Elizabeth, N. J.

Whether in the chest, back, side or limbs, the Hop Plaster instantly stops pain and soreness.

PILES! PILES! ITCHING PILES.

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cent. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

POSITIVELY UGLY FACES

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

EPOCH.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory, and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing, you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50 cents and $1 per bottle, at VanDeusen Brothers', Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke's, Kingston.

WILL YOU SUFFER with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint? Shiloh's Vitalizer is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by F. J. R. Clarke, Kingston.

100 LADIES WANTED,

And 100 men to call on any druggist for a free trial package of Lane's Family Medicine, the great root and herb remedy, discovered by Dr. Silas Lane while in the Rocky Mountains. For diseases of the blood, liver and kidneys it is a positive cure. For constipation and clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Children like it. Everyone praises it. Large-size package 50 cents. At all druggists.

SLIPPING PAST THE PALATE,

without nauseating those who take them, the little, sugar-coated Granules, known all over the land as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, produce an effect upon the bowels very different from that of a disagreeable, violent purgative. No griping or drenching follows, as in the case of a drastic cholagogue. The relief to the intestines resembles the action of Nature in her happiest moods, the impulse given to the dormant liver is of the most salutary kind, and is speedily manifested by the disappearance of all bilious symptoms. Sick headache, wind on the stomach, pain through the right side and shoulder-blade, and yellowness of the skin and eye-balls are speedily remedied by the Pellets. One a dose.

A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle of Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cents. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

Never had a preparation a more appropriate name than Ayer's Hair Vigor. When the capillary glands become enfeebled by disease, age, or neglect, this dressing imparts renewed life to the scalp, so that the hair assumes much of its youthful fullness and beauty.

ALD BROKEN DOWN.

Is it not sad to see so many young men every day of whom this can be said? Young man, take my advice. Stop all indiscretions which you have practiced, keep good hours, retire early, and build up your shattered system by using Sulphur Bitters, which will cure you.—Old Physician.

"MY KINGDOM FOR A HORSE,"

But if he suffers from scratches, cracks, cuts, galls or wounds of any kind, Veterinary Hop Ointment is warranted to cure. Never fails. $1.00 a box. At all druggists.

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

IT IS A CURIOUS FACT

That the body is now more susceptible to benefit from medicine than any other season. Hence the importance of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla now, when it will do you the most good. It is really wonderful for purifying and enriching the blood, creating an appetite, and giving a healthy tone to the whole system. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar to itself.

NOT A PIMPLE ON HIM NOW.

Bad with Eczema. Hair all Gone. Scalp Covered with Eruptions. Thought His Hair Would Never Grow. Cured by Cuticura Remedies. Hair Splendid and Not a Pimple on Him.

I cannot say enough in praise of the Cuticura Remedies. My boy, when one year of age, was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said was scall head, and that his hair would never grow again. Desparing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the Cuticura Remedies, and, I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the Cuticura Remedies to mothers as the most speedy, economical, and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.
MRS. M. E. WOODSUM, Norway, Me.

A Fever Sore Eight Years Cured.

I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who has been cured by using the Cuticura Remedies, of an old sore, caused by a long spell of sickness or fever eight years ago. He was so bad he was fearful he would have to have his leg amputated, but is happy to say he is now entirely well, sound as a dollar. He requests me to use his name, which is H. H. Cason, merchant of this place.
JOHN V. MINOR, Druggist, Gainsboro, Tenn.

Severe Scalp Disease Cured.

A few weeks ago my wife suffered very much from a cutaneous disease of the scalp, and received no relief from the various remedies she used until she tried Cuticura. The disease promptly yielded to this treatment, and in a short while she was entirely well. There has been no return of the disease, and Cuticura ranks No. 1 in our estimation for diseases of the skin.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

Cure Begins from First Application, and is Rapid, Radical And Permanent.

It is the mucous membrame, that wonderful semi-fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarah makes its stronghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals, and renders life but a long-drawn breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, trammeling the power of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, tainting the breath, and killing the refined pleasures of taste. Insidiously, by creeping on from a simple cold in the head, it assaults the membranous lining and envelopes the bones, eating through the delicate coats and causing inflammation, sloughing and other dangerous symptoms. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient, and all alleviatives are simply procrastinated sufferings. Sanford's Radical Cure, by Inhalation and by Internal administration, rarely fails; even when the disease has made frightful inroads on delicate constitutions, hearing, smell, and taste have been recovered, and the disease throughly driven out.

Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh

Consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box Catarrhal Solvent, and one Improved Inhaler, neatly wrapped in one package, with full directions; price, $1.00. Sold everywhere.

WEAK, PAINFUL BACKS,

Kidney and Uterine Pains and Weaknesses, relieved in one minute, by the Cuticura Anti-Pain Plaster, the first and only pain-killing-plaster. New, instantaneous, infalliable. 25 cents.

DRUNKENNESS

OR THE LIQUOR HABIT, POSITIVELY CURED BY ADMINISTERING DR. HAINES' GOLDEN SPECIFIC.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea or in articles of food, without the knowledge of the patient, it is absolutely harmless and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. It never fails. Over 100,000 drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee with out their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. Forty-eight page book of particulars free.

PEERLESS DYES Are the Best Sold by druggists.

If You Are Sick.

With Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Blood Humors, Kidney Disease; Constipation, Female Troubles; Fever and Ague, Sleeplessness; Partial Paralysis or Nervous Prostration, use Paine's Celery Compound and be cured. In each of these the cause is mental or physical overwork, anxiety, exposure or malaria; the effect of which is to weaken the nervous system, resulting in one of these diseases. Remove the cause with that great Nerve Tonic and the result will disappear.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

"Jas. L. Bowen, Springfield, Mass., writes: "Paine's Celery Compound cannot be excelled as a Nerve Tonic. In my case a single bottle wrought a great change. My nervousness entirely disappeared and with it the resulting affection of the stomach, heart and liver and the whole tone of the system was wonderfully invigorated. I tell my friends, if sick as I have been, Paine's Celery Compound

THE WOES OF THE TITLED BRIDES.

Some weeks ago we referred to the sorrows of a young heiress of Pittsburg, who married the Count di Montercale of Italy. When she arrived with him at his home in the sunny land she learned that he was the son of the real Count di Montercale's gardener, and that he had stolen his master's title for speculative uses in America. His cruelties, after he had squandered her money, caused her to seek protection from the American legation at Naples, and she was assisted to return to America. She had been in Pittsburg but a little while before her husband appeared on the scene and demanded money as the price of letting her alone. When he found that the money was not forthcoming and that the laws of the United States would protect her from his persecutions, he went around the city trying to sell to the newspapers the story of their troubles which he had written up. He was finally provided with passage money for Europe by the unhappy woman's friends, while she remained in Pittsburg to prosecute her divorce suit.

The marriage of Miss Constable, a wealthy young lady of Baltimore, to the Baron Von Sucrow of Berlin while pursuing her studies in Paris, made a big social sensation a few months ago. The Baron came to this country with his bride, and lived well for a time upon her income. As money grew scarcer he informed her that he must return to Germany with her, to placate his irate father, who, since his marriage, had kept a firm grip upon several millions that belonged to himself. He was sure that the sight of his bride's beauty would melt the stony heart of the old gentleman, who was a noble Baron also. The bride gave him the money with which to buy the tickets for the voyage, and he went out in search of a ship. Weeks went by, but he did not return. At length a letter from him was received, informing her that he had decided to go home alone. The lady took the first steamer and sailed for Europe. Arrived in London, she called upon Baring Brothers, who, the Baron had told her, were his bankers. They had never heard the name of Von Sucrow, neither had the person whom she described as her husband ever had any dealings with them. The bride traveled on to Berlin, only to learn that the Von Sucrow family was equally unknown there. She started with a broken heart on her return voyage, and at London obtained from the American legation a loan to pay her passage home. At last accounts she had not yet reached Baltimore.

Still another disappointed, disgusted and heart-broken woman is Madame Gaston de Fontenilliat, who until December, 1887, was Miss Minnie Smith of New York. The young French nobleman whom she married was the brother of a real Baron and an officer in the army of France, while the lady is herself a sister of Mrs. Wm. K. Vanderbilt. Soon after her marriage, and while living in Paris, Mme. Fontenilliat received a letter from one Mme. Odette, informing her that her husband was indebted to her in the sum of 40,000 francs, and threatening to make things lively for his new family unless the money was paid. Mme. Fontenilliat investigated the matter sufficiently to learn the character of the Odette woman, and the particulars of the intrigue in which her husband had been engaged with her, and then raised the money to meet her demands. But in the meantime Odette had reported the husband's conduct to his Colonel, and he was dismissed from the service in disgrace. He was now penniless and without income, and the couple came to New-York, where the noble husband managed for a time to earn $7 a week. But his wife soon detected him in appropriating and pawning her jewels, and he was also accused of using the property of other inmates of the boarding house in the same way. So at last the bride separated herself from her husband, and knows him no more. The outcome in this case, as in the others, will undoubtedly be a divorce suit.

These cases of disappointment might be multiplied indefinitely by going back a little further in the history of American girls who have accepted foreign husbands and swapped their fortunes for titles. The titles of our American noblemen may seem simpler and may not be shared by their wives, but they are often worth marrying after all. A young woman who came to this city several years ago had the good fortune to contract a happy marriage, and her first letter home in announcement of the event carried great joy to her friends, for she told them that her husband was a captain. She did not then explain, nor has she found occasion to do so since, the difference between a captain in the English army and a captain on the Delaware & Hudson Canal. But the man was honest, industrious and successful, and the good woman would not shrink from a comparison of her condition with that of the average of American girls whose European husbands sport the titles of Counts, Barons, Dukes, Earls, Lords, Princes, etc.

FEDERAL ARCHITECTURE.

Supervising Architect Windrim has been giving expression to some opinions concerning the construction of government buildings which hold out a cheering prospect of improvement in the value and usefulness of these important edifices. He advocates in the first place a national style of architecture, such as is adapted to the needs of the government. He would have them distinguished by some design or peculiarity of construction which would enable them to be recognized as government buildings at once. Government architecture of late years has run counter to this idea, the purpose of the designers having been evidently to present as wide a variety as possible. Hence in one town there will be the hideous Queen Anne style with its excresences jutting out on every side, in another the Gothic, the Renaissance, the Grecian, Doric, Egyptian or Swiss. Some of the effects of these are very pretty, but in most cases they are out of place with their surroundings, especially where a million-dollar building is erected in a ten-dollar town. Mr. Windrim proposes to change all this. A government building is to be a government building wherever located.

Mr. Windrim is for solidity and plainness, first, last and all the time. We hope he will be able to envolve from his idea a style of architecture distinctively American, so that we shall not have to go back to the dark ages for our designs. Our buildings should bear the stamp of endurance and permanence, like our government itself. If the money expended in "gingerbread" work, in towers, porticos, and the many varieties of excrescences that must eventually crumble away, were applied to rendering the walls more massive, the roof more secure, the entrances more impervious to the burglar's tools, and the interior more roomy and convenient, there would be improvement all around. The architecture of America should not be as shifty as a lady's dress, to be put on or off in a moment. The streets of every city show the effect of the passion for new and ever-changing designs in an absence of all uniformity and consistency. The plain but massive residence of a century ago has an humble and abashed look beside the pretentious but unsubstantial Queen Anne disfiguration of to-day, with its countless peaks and gables, its cell-like windows, its stuffy little verandas, and its abominable contrasts of paint. Let Mr. Windrim set an example for all of us, so that those who have the opportunity to follow him may be able to construct something really American and of which their descendants will not be ashamed a century hence.

THE REPUBLICAN WAY.

The state debt of Iowa is only $95,000, though the state paid its full share of the expense of the war, and in the past six years more than a million dollars has been expended for public buildings, including a soldiers' home and an insane asylum. Before the present year comes to a close the last dollar of debt will be paid. That is Iowa's way. It has always maintained Republican administration, and has never shown even a momentary weakness on the subject or the slightest leaning towards any other party.

But Iowa has one Democratic county—the county of Dubuque. Well, what of it? Why nothing, except that the county debt of this county is over $100,000 and is increasing every year, though there has not been a public improvement made in twenty years to show for it. The ring that manages the county affairs is engaged in one steady and unrelenting steal, and the tax-payers are at their mercy.

We believe the readers of THE FREEMAN have heard of similar contrasts between the Republican way and the Democratic way before. Indeed, it appears to be ever thus. But why?

PUBLIC OPINION.

Mr. Cleveland has a stronger hold upon the affection and respect of the people of the United States than any man has enjoyed since Abraham Lincoln, and the respect increases as the character of Harrison gradually unfolds itself.—St. Louis Republic.

Well, well! That is news. Isn't it strange they didn't show some of their affection and respect by re-electing him to the Presidency? And where, by the way, does one General Grant, who really did something for the country, come in?—Rochester Herald, Ind.

It was long since established that Governor D. B. Hill is the most unconscionable demagogue who ever filled an executive chair. There is but one class of people who can rely upon him, and that is the keepers of saloons, gambling hells and the very worst and most dangerous elements of American society.—Oswego Times.

It is not at all surprising that Governor Hill should veto the Saxton electoral reform bill. The hollow pretense that he favors ballot reform has been exposed time and again. The ballot reform that Governor Hill favors will never be adopted until a Legislature assembles which is made up of a majority of saloon-keepers and plug-uglies in both branches.—New-York Graphic.

The death of James B. Smith, an editor of the Springfield Republican, killed by a brother-in-law who mistook him for a burglar; the accidental death of Captain Whittaker of Mt. Vernon, who killed himself while handling a pistol, and numerous other distressing casualties which have shocked the public recently, point the truth of the old saying that a revolver is more dangerous to the owner than to any one else.—New-York Press.

Let us hear no more of D. B. Hill as a friend of "labor." The Saxton bill was of vital importance to every wageworker. On the adoption of the Australian ballot depends the question whether he might or might not run for office without mortgaging his political soul to the devil in order to raise the sinews of political warfare. And this creature of the vilest political elements in the state has said so; that the boss, the boodler and the briber shall continue to dominate New York politics.—Albany Journal.

The Assembly yesterday knocked out the Fish committee report on the ceiling investigation, and took instead Ainsworth's "whitewashing" report. It was rumored that this "vindication" of the guilty parties cost them a large sum of money. Why they should have paid much is a mystery, for the new committee found very few facts not already known to the old one. But then the Fish committee asserted that there was a conspiracy to rob the state; and this Mr. Ainsworth and his friends denied, or at least thought not proved. Mr. Hitt's part in yesterday's transactions was very discreditable, but not unexpected.—Albany Express.

Governor Hill of New York has vetoed the Saxton electoral reform bill, pronouncing it in its present form an impossibility, and recommending the Legislature to enact during the present session a bill embodying at least those provisions which the Legislature and the Executive agree will tend to reduce the evils of political corruption. This is one of the most impudent addresses a Governor ever made to a Legislature. In effect, he is taking legislation out of the hands of the men chosen by the people to enact it, and assuming to impose his own notions upon them. In point of fact, D. B. Hill does not wish to diminish political corruption, or he would not make this preposterous demand. —Springfield Republican.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind-colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

SHILOH'S CURE will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

I could scarcely speak; it was almost impossible to breathe through my nostrils. Using Ely's Cream Balm a short time the trouble entirely disappeared. —J. O. Tichenor, Shoe Merchant, Elizabeth, N. J.

Whether in the chest, back, side or limbs, the Hop Plaster instantly stops pain and soreness.

PILES! PILES! ITCHING PILES.

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cent. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

POSITIVELY UGLY FACES

Can be made clear and attractive. Those horrid pimples and blotches can be removed by one application of Hop Ointment. Never fails. Take no other. 25 cents, at druggists, or mail stamps to the Hop Co., New-London, Conn.

Women with pale, colorless faces, who feel weak and discouraged, will receive both mental and bodily vigor by using Carter's Iron Pills, which are made for the blood, nerves and complexion.

Dyspepsia in its worst forms will yield to the use of Carter's Little Nerve Pills, aided by Carter's Little Liver Pills. They not only relieve present distress, but strengthen the stomach and digestive apparatus.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

EPOCH.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory, and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing, you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50 cents and $1 per bottle, at VanDeusen Brothers', Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke's, Kingston.

WILL YOU SUFFER with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint? Shiloh's Vitalizer is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by F. J. R. Clarke, Kingston.

100 LADIES WANTED,

And 100 men to call on any druggist for a free trial package of Lane's Family Medicine, the great root and herb remedy, discovered by Dr. Silas Lane while in the Rocky Mountains. For diseases of the blood, liver and kidneys it is a positive cure. For constipation and clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Children like it. Everyone praises it. Large-size package 50 cents. At all druggists.

SLIPPING PAST THE PALATE,

without nauseating those who take them, the little, sugar-coated Granules, known all over the land as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, produce an effect upon the bowels very different from that of a disagreeable, violent purgative. No griping or drenching follows, as in the case of a drastic cholagogue. The relief to the intestines resembles the action of Nature in her happiest moods, the impulse given to the dormant liver is of the most salutary kind, and is speedily manifested by the disappearance of all bilious symptoms. Sick headache, wind on the stomach, pain through the right side and shoulder-blade, and yellowness of the skin and eye-balls are speedily remedied by the Pellets. One a dose.

A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle of Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cents. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

Never had a preparation a more appropriate name than Ayer's Hair Vigor. When the capillary glands become enfeebled by disease, age, or neglect, this dressing imparts renewed life to the scalp, so that the hair assumes much of its youthful fullness and beauty.

ALD BROKEN DOWN.

Is it not sad to see so many young men every day of whom this can be said? Young man, take my advice. Stop all indiscretions which you have practiced, keep good hours, retire early, and build up your shattered system by using Sulphur Bitters, which will cure you.—Old Physician.

"MY KINGDOM FOR A HORSE,"

But if he suffers from scratches, cracks, cuts, galls or wounds of any kind, Veterinary Hop Ointment is warranted to cure. Never fails. $1.00 a box. At all druggists.

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

IT IS A CURIOUS FACT

That the body is now more susceptible to benefit from medicine than any other season. Hence the importance of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla now, when it will do you the most good. It is really wonderful for purifying and enriching the blood, creating an appetite, and giving a healthy tone to the whole system. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar to itself.

NOT A PIMPLE ON HIM NOW.

Bad with Eczema. Hair all Gone. Scalp Covered with Eruptions. Thought His Hair Would Never Grow. Cured by Cuticura Remedies. Hair Splendid and Not a Pimple on Him.

I cannot say enough in praise of the Cuticura Remedies. My boy, when one year of age, was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said was scall head, and that his hair would never grow again. Desparing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the Cuticura Remedies, and, I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the Cuticura Remedies to mothers as the most speedy, economical, and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

MRS. M. E. WOODSUM, Norway, Me.

A Fever Sore Eight Years Cured.

I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who has been cured by using the Cuticura Remedies, of an old sore, caused by a long spell of sickness or fever eight years ago. He was so bad he was fearful he would have to have his leg amputated, but is happy to say he is now entirely well, sound as a dollar. He requests me to use his name, which is H. H. Cason, merchant of this place. JOHN V. MINOR, Druggist, Gainsboro, Tenn.

Severe Scalp Disease Cured.

A few weeks ago my wife suffered very much from a cutaneous disease of the scalp, and received no relief from the various remedies she used until she tried Cuticura. The disease promptly yielded to this treatment, and in a short while she was entirely well. There has been no return of the disease, and Cuticura ranks No. 1 in our estimation for diseases of the skin.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

Cure Begins from First Application, and is Rapid, Radical And Permanent.

It is the mucous membrame, that wonderful semi-fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarah makes its stronghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals, and renders life but a long-drawn breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, trammeling the power of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, tainting the breath, and killing the refined pleasures of taste. Insidiously, by creeping on from a simple cold in the head, it assaults the membranous lining and envelopes the bones, eating through the delicate coats and causing inflammation, sloughing and other dangerous symptoms. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient, and all alleviatives are simply procrastinated sufferings. Sanford's Radical Cure, by Inhalation and by Internal administration, rarely fails; even when the disease has made frightful inroads on delicate constitutions, hearing, smell, and taste have been recovered, and the disease throughly driven out.

Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh

Consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box Catarrhal Solvent, and one Improved Inhaler, neatly wrapped in one package, with full directions; price, $1.00. Sold everywhere.

"Try Ayer's Pills"

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Gout. Stephen Lansing, of Yonkers, N. Y., says: "Recommended as a cure for chronic Costiveness, Ayer's Pills have relieved me from that trouble and also from Gout. If every victim of this disease would heed only three words of mine, I could banish Gout from the land. These words would be—'Try Ayer's Pills.'"

"By the use of Ayer's Pills alone, I cured myself permanently of rheumatism which had troubled me several months. These Pills are at once harmless and effectual, and, I believe, would prove a specific in all cases of incipient

Rheumatism.

No medicine could have served me in better tead."—C. C. Rock, Corner, Avoyelles Parish, La.

C. F. Hopkins, Nevada City, writes: "I have used Ayer's Pills for sixteen years, and I think they are the best Pills in the world. We keep a box of them in the house all the time. They have cured me of sick headache and neuralgia. Since taking Ayer's Pills, I have been free from these complaints."

"I have derived great benefit from Ayer's Pills. Five years ago I was taken so ill with rheumatism that I was unable to do any work. I took three boxes of Ayer's Pills and was entirely cured. Since that time I am never without a box of these pills."—Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis.

FOR WOMEN.

Are you wasting slowly but surely away from the effects of female weaknesses? Are you wan, pale, and nervous? Do you not sometimes feel that life is losing its attractions, and that you are gradually sinking into a decline which, if not taken in hand promptly, will end in an early death? Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy-cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. There is not a sensible maid, wife or mother who will not appreciate as more valuable than gold and precious stones Dr Fontaine's new remedy PALMETTO, which is safe, sure, and speedy in curing the worst case of female weakness.

FOUND FLOATING IN THE DELAWARE

Sad Ending of the Life of a Son of a Wealthy Philadelphian.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.—The body of a young man named Paul, the son of Henry S. Paul, a wealthy resident of this City, was found in the Delaware River, near Bordentown, this morning. He graduated from Harvard College last June, after a four years' special course in chemistry. After graduating he made a tour through Europe. Two weeks ago he became ill with a brain trouble and nervousness. While attending college he became engaged to a young woman of high family of Boston, and the marriage was to have taken place soon. His affianced came on to see him last week, but the young man became worse, his physician advised that he be removed to a private insane asylum for treatment. The young man objected to this. It was then suggested that he visit his uncle, who resides at Edgewater Park, N. J. Young Paul consented and on Friday last was taken thither in charge of an attendant. Some time during that night he unlocked the door of his room and disappeared. No clue to his whereabouts was obtained until his body was found floating in the Delaware River.

TO ELEVATE "COMMON PEOPLE."

What a Philanthropic Young Woman Proposes to Do in City of Chicago.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, May 15.—Miss. Jane Adams, a wealthy young lady of a philanthropic turn of mind, who has recently returned from Europe, has rented the handsome residence of the late millionaire J. C. Hull, at the corner of Palla and Halstead-streets, and proposes to entertain largely. She will not only invite her own set but the Poles, Bohemians, Germans and people of other nationalities who reside in the neighborhood. The district is not exactly a "tough" one but is peopled by the lower classes of foreigners with whom cleanliness is not a virtue. Miss Adams means to do what she can toward the elevation socially of the people among whom she is shortly to take up her residence.

A SEVERE ELECTRIC STORM.

DISPLAY OF NATURE'S FORCES 'LONG SHORE AND IN THE CATSKILLS.

Last Night Flashes of Lightning Followed One Another in Rapid Succession, and Torrents of Rain Fell—Two Storms Meet In the Catskills—On the River.

The storm along portions of the Hudson River and in adjoining localities inland was severe last night.

At one time it seemed as though the floodgates of the heavens had been opened. Rain fell in torrents. People asleep in bed were awakened by the noise made by the water falling. The effect of the rain was seen this morning in different parts of the City.

A bolt struck the top of the high chimney of Teller Brothers' old tannery on North Front-street, Kingston, and knocked off a basketful of bricks. Several men in the vicinity say the lightning came "from a black cloud like a molten ball of fire, as large as a man's hat." When it struck the chimney, the sparks flew from it as from a red-hot iron when struck by a trip-hammer. Myron Teller, who stood nearest the chimney, felt the effects of the electric fluid. Thomas Winchell, who was mowing grass 200 feet distant, saw a ball of fire bounding towards him over the ground. He dropped his scythe and ran. The chimney which was struck is about 60 feet in height.

Just before the storm began to clear away, a few minutes before 8 o'clock, the sky in the west and south-west looked as though there had been an illumination, in which Greek fire had been used. Streaks of chain lightning added brilliancy to the magnificent meteorological effect.

Boatmen say that there was a "rough time" on the Hudson River. When the steamer "City of Kingston" reached Cornwall, on its journey north, the storm burst in all its fury. The atmosphere seemed to be surcharged with electricity, sharp flashes following one another in quick succession.

At points in the fruit-growing belt along the shore hail fell, inflicting injury on growing fruit. Part of one Concord vineyard was riddled by the hail as though by grape and canister.

In portions of the Catskills the storm was one of the severest experienced in several years. When the dark and angry clouds, surcharged with electricity, met between the mountain peaks, and the pent-up fluid was released by the contact of Nature's forces, the lightning flashes were blinding. Two storms, each traveling in a circular direction, met near Slide Mountain. There was a terrific crash, and rain fell in torrents. In localities in the mountains it looked as though there had been a cloud-burst.

NEWSPAPERS AND NEWSPAPER MEN.

A New-York City Editor's Address Last Night—The Use of Adjectives.

A newspaper man writes: "Among the smaller mannerisms of mankind there is none more closely worth observing as an instruction in character than the use of adjectives. Of women, this is still truer than of men. Adjectives were doubtless invented because we could not do without them. Among the old writers, with whom speech was 'golden,' it is curious to note how sparingly they are used, nor is diction weakened by this parsimony. Rather it is strengthened, and it may be taken as a true principal in syntax that the employment of these props to expression should be avoided wherever possible. To say that wherever an adjective is seen it should be struck out, would be too indiscriminate advice, but at least it should have its passport vised. Every unnecessary adjective weakens a sentence."

The Dartmouth Alumni lecture course, in which the speakers have all been Alumni and the lectures free, was closed last night, at Hanover, N. H., by C. R. Miller, Class of '72, Editor of the New-York Times, whose subject was, "The Art of Making a Newspaper." In the audience were many from the neighboring towns and academics. After the lecture Mr. Miller was serenaded by the college students and was given an informal reception by the local chapter of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity, which he helped found.

"What idiots they have on the newspapers nowadays!" exclaimed Hornblower. "There was a reporter in here yesterday, and I told him about the big improvements I had been making down our way. Of course I told him not to mention my name in his paper, and the blamed tool didn't.—Boston Transcript.

Oswald Ottendorfer of the New-York Staats Zeitung arrived yesterday upon the steamship Werra. His step-son, General Uhl, Paul Loeser, Dr. Senner, B. A. Gueterbock, and Coroner Ferdinand Levy went over to Hoboken to welcome him.

"Try Ayer's Pills"

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Gout. Stephen Lansing, of Yonkers, N. Y., says: "Recommended as a cure for chronic Costiveness, Ayer's Pills have relieved me from that trouble and also from Gout. If every victim of this disease would heed only three words of mine, I could banish Gout from the land. These words would be—'Try Ayer's Pills.'"

"By the use of Ayer's Pills alone, I cured myself permanently of rheumatism which had troubled me several months. These Pills are at once harmless and effectual, and, I believe, would prove a specific in all cases of incipient

Rheumatism.

No medicine could have served me in better tead."—C. C. Rock, Corner, Avoyelles Parish, La.

C. F. Hopkins, Nevada City, writes: "I have used Ayer's Pills for sixteen years, and I think they are the best Pills in the world. We keep a box of them in the house all the time. They have cured me of sick headache and neuralgia. Since taking Ayer's Pills, I have been free from these complaints."

"I have derived great benefit from Ayer's Pills. Five years ago I was taken so ill with rheumatism that I was unable to do any work. I took three boxes of Ayer's Pills and was entirely cured. Since that time I am never without a box of these pills."—Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis.

FOUND FLOATING IN THE DELAWARE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.—The body of a young man named Paul, the son of Henry S. Paul, a wealthy resident of this City, was found in the Delaware River, near Bordentown, this morning. He graduated from Harvard College last June, after a four years' special course in chemistry. After graduating he made a tour through Europe. Two weeks ago he became ill with a brain trouble and nervousness. While attending college he became engaged to a young woman of high family of Boston, and the marriage was to have taken place soon. His affianced came on to see him last week, but the young man became worse, his physician advised that he be removed to a private insane asylum for treatment. The young man objected to this. It was then suggested that he visit his uncle, who resides at Edgewater Park, N. J. Young Paul consented and on Friday last was taken thither in charge of an attendant. Some time during that night he unlocked the door of his room and disappeared. No clue to his whereabouts was obtained until his body was found floating in the Delaware River.

TO ELEVATE "COMMON PEOPLE."

What a Philanthropic Young Woman Proposes to Do in City of Chicago.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, May 15.—Miss Jane Adams, a wealthy young lady of a philanthropic turn of mind, who has recently returned from Europe, has rented the handsome residence of the late millionaire J. C. Hull, at the corner of Palla and Halstead-streets, and proposes to entertain largely. She will not only invite her own set but the Poles, Bohemians, Germans and people of other nationalities who reside in the neighborhood. The district is not exactly a "tough" one but is peopled by the lower classes of foreigners with whom cleanliness is not a virtue. Miss Adams means to do what she can toward the elevation socially of the people among whom she is shortly to take up her residence.

A SEVERE ELECTRIC STORM.

DISPLAY OF NATURE'S FORCES 'LONG SHORE AND IN THE CATSKILLS.

Last Night Flashes of Lightning Followed One Another in Rapid Succession, and Torrents of Rain Fell—Two Storms Meet in the Catskills—On the River.

The storm along portions of the Hudson River and in adjoining localities inland was severe last night.

At one time it seemed as though the flood-gates of the heavens had been opened. Rain fell in torrents. People asleep in bed were awakened by the noise made by the water falling. The effect of the rain was seen this morning in different parts of the City.

A bolt struck the top of the high chimney of Teller Brothers' old tannery on North Front-street, Kingston, and knocked off a basketful of bricks. Several men in the vicinity say the lightning came "from a black cloud like a molten ball of fire, as large as a man's hat." When it struck the chimney, the sparks flew from it as from a red-hot iron when struck by a trip-hammer. Myron Teller, who stood nearest the chimney, felt the effects of the electric fluid. Thomas Winchell, who was mowing grass 200 feet distant, saw a ball of fire bounding towards him over the ground. He dropped his scythe and ran. The chimney which was struck is about 60 feet in height.

Just before the storm began to clear away, a few minutes before 8 o'clock, the sky in the west and south-west looked as though there had been an illumination, in which Greek fire had been used. Streaks of chain lightning added brilliancy to the magnificent meteorological effect.

Boatmen say that there was a "rough time" on the Hudson River. When the steamer "City of Kingston" reached Cornwall, on its journey north, the storm burst in all its fury. The atmosphere seemed to be surcharged with electricity, sharp flashes following one another in quick succession.

At points in the fruit-growing belt along the shore hail fell, inflicting injury on growing fruit. Part of one Concord vineyard was riddled by the hail as though by grape and canister.

In portions of the Catskills the storm was one of the severest experienced in several years. When the dark and angry clouds, surcharged with electricity, met between the mountain peaks, and the pent-up fluid was released by the contact of Nature's forces, the lightning flashes were blinding. Two storms, each traveling in a circular direction, met near Slide Mountain. There was a terrific crash, and rain fell in torrents. In localities in the mountains it looked as though there had been a cloud-burst.

NEWSPAPERS AND NEWSPAPER MEN.

A New-York City Editor's Address Last Night—The Use of Adjectives.

A newspaper man writes: "Among the smaller mannerisms of mankind there is none more closely worth observing as an instruction in character than the use of adjectives. Of women, this is still truer than of men. Adjectives were doubtless invented because we could not do without them. Among the old writers, with whom speech was 'golden,' it is curious to note how sparingly they are used, nor is diction weakened by this parsimony. Rather it is strengthened, and it may be taken as a true principal in syntax that the employment of these props to expression should be avoided wherever possible. To say that wherever an adjective is seen it should be struck out, would be too indiscriminate advice, but at least it should have its passport vised. Every unnecessary adjective weakens a sentence."

The Dartmouth Alumni lecture course, in which the speakers have all been Alumni and the lectures free, was closed last night, at Hanover, N. H., by C. R. Miller, Class of '72, Editor of the New-York Times, whose subject was, "The Art of Making a Newspaper." In the audience were many from the neighboring towns and academies. After the lecture Mr. Miller was serenaded by the college students and was given an informal reception by the local chapter of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity, which he helped found.

"What idiots they have on the newspapers nowadays!" exclaimed Hornblower. "There was a reporter in here yesterday, and I told him about the big improvements I had been making down our way. Of course I told him not to mention my name in his paper, and the blamed tool didn't.—Boston Transcript.

Oswald Ottendorfer of the New-York Staats Zeitung arrived yesterday upon the steamship Werra. His step-son, General Uhl, Paul Loeser, Dr. Senner, B. A. Gueterbock, and Coroner Ferdinand Levy went over to Hoboken to welcome him.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

THEIR BUSINESS BOOMING.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at VanDeusen Bros., Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke's, Kingston, Drug Stores, as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

SHILOH'S COUGH and Consumption Cure is sold by us on a guarantee. It cures Consumption. For sale by F. J. R. Clarke, Kingston.

O listen! On the breezes glad voices come to-day.
From many a wife and mother, and this is what they say:
"The 'Favorite Prescription' works cures where doctors fail.
Best friend of suffering women, O blessed boon, all hail"!

If every woman who suffers from diseases peculiar to her sex, knew of its wonderful curative properties, what a mighty chorus of rejoicing would be heard throughout the length and breadth of the land, singing the praises of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

FORCED TO LEAVE HOME.

Over 60 people were forced to leave their homes yesterday to call for a free trial package of Lane's Family Medicine. If your blood is bad, your liver and kidneys out of order, if you are constipated, and have headache and an unsightly complexion, don't fail to call on any druggist to day for a free sample of this grand remedy. The ladies praise it. Every one likes it. Large size package 50 cents.

"HACKMETACK," a lasting and fragrant perfume. Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by Frederick J R. Clark.

CONFIDENCE BEGOT OF SUCCESS.

The confidence possessed by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy in their ability to cure the worst cases of nasal catarrh, no matter of how long standing, is attested in a most substantial manner by their standing reward of $500, offered for many years past, for an incurable case of this loathsome and dangerous disease. The Remedy is sold by druggists at only 50 cents. It is mild, soothing, cleansing, deodorizing, antiseptic and healing.

SHILOH'S VITALIZER is what you need for Constipation, Loss of Appetite, Dizziness and all symptoms of Dyspepsia. Price 10 and 75 cents per bottle For sale by F. J. R. Clarke, Kingston.

Dyspepsia causes depraved blood, which, in time, affects every organ and function of the body. As a remedy for these troubles, nothing can approach Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It vitalizes the blood, strengthens the stomach, and corrects all disorders of the liver and kidneys.

CITY AND SUBURBAN NEWS.

BITS OF CHAT AND GOSSIP OVERHEARD HERE TO-DAY.

A Rondout Clergyman's Views About a Growing Western City—Money Asked for By the Industrial Home Managers—Good And Bad Roadways—A New Dainty Here.

The Rev. A. K. Fuller, of the Wurts-Street Baptist Church, who has decided, after September next, to labor in Sioux Falls, Dakota, recently returned from a two weeks' visit to that growing Western City. Mr. Fuller brought home pictures of the most prominent buildings. They show imposing structures, of the latest style architecture. They are nearly all built of stone, taken from quarries on the outskirts of the place. It is called jasper, or Sioux Falls granite, said by geologists to be the hardest building stone known. Five railroads enter Sioux Falls. Six years ago a young lawyer, a friend of Mr. Fuller, went to Sioux Falls to seek his fortune. To-day he is a rich man, and has been elected to a high office in the affairs of the Territory. The President of one of the largest banks in Sioux Falls was a college classmate of Mr. Fuller, and he told his old friend that he had "struck it rich" by taking Horace Greely's advice about "going West." The future of Sioux Falls, Mr. Fuller opines, is a bright one. Residents there predict that in 10 years time it will be a City of 60,000 inhabitants.

Much is still being said about roadways, good and bad, in this City and vicinity. In other cities similar talk is heard. In discussing the matter, the Rochester Union says:

If there is any city in the world that does not complain of its pavements it would be interesting to learn where that city is and what its pavements are made of. Some cities are worse paved than others. Rochester, for instance, has a good many miles of worn-out macadam that is about as bad as any semblance of a pavement can be. But there is fair ground for arguing that no city pavement is good. They are all bad, but some are worse than others. Any pavement that is going to be in good condition in the spring and fall must be too hard to be pleasant for use in summer. Asphalt is smooth, slippery, noisy under horses' feet—though quiet for wheels—and too hard for the equine hoof. Block stone pavements are noisy for wheels, rough and uneven. Aspbalt wears out your horse and stone blocks shake your carriage to pieces. Macadam, when it is new and good, is satisfactory to man and beast. Unhappily, in Rochester, it is only good while it is new. It cannot stand wet weather, and the cost of keeping it in repair makes it too costly a luxury for general use. The philosophic citizen approaches the pavement question with the conviction that all pavements are bad, and that the best he can do is to get the one that is least objectionable. Blessed are such citizens for there is some possibility that they will be satisfied.

"There are people in this City whose custom I do not care for," said a Rondout groceryman this forenoon. "They are men and women known to us tradesmen as 'feelers.' A 'feeler' is a person who enters a store and wants to feel or squeeze everything there is in it before he or she buys. Often no purchase is made. If the 'feeler' is a man he must feel of the cheese to see if it is not too soft or too hard; squeeze the apples to find out whether they are solid or not; sift the sugar through his hands, to see that there is no sand in it; pat the flour in order to see if it will lie smooth, and do a hundred and one other cranky things, before he is satisfied. Some women are worse than men in this respect."

It is pointed out that though the art of dictation is almost a new art here, yet it is spreading rapidly and certain business men are beginning to understand that much of their lives have been wasted in the mere mechanical drudgery of letter writing, and that through employing a competent amanuensis they are now enabled to get off their correspondence with the least possible friction and the smallest amount of time.

Comptroller Meyers, of New-York City, yesterday wrote to all of the heads of departments and to Senator Hendricks, of the Senate Committee on Cities, urging the passage of the bill now in that committee imposing a license fee of from $1 to $25 on the holders of sidewalk stand permits. The computed annual revenue to New-York City is $360,000. Issuing stand permits in this Ciy would be a source of revenue.

There is a spring of pure water called the "Indian Spring," near Stumpy Field here. According to a fairy tradition it derived its name from the fact that an Indian maiden fell in the spring and was drowned. It is said that for many years after, when gazing intently on the water, a person could see her smiling face.

A large number of boys are employed on the "Island Docks" of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company here, picking slate from the coal. The little fellows return home every evening with their faces begrimed with dirt, but they make an honest living and find the business of picking slate quite remunerative.

A citizen experimented with chewing gum yesterday. Several men at work in his office were complaining of the heat and talking incessantly. He procured a few sticks of chewing gum and gave each man a piece. Soon there was silence. No one thought of the weather.

This morning an agent of a monument company placed, temporarily, two bronze figures, representing a soldier and sailor, on the porch in front of the Court House. The figures are seven feet in height and weigh 1,000 pounds each.

Bad boys place stones on the Kingston City Horse Railroad tracks. This morning a car was stopped twice going up Union-avenue hill in order that the driver could clear the tracks of stones that had been placed on the rails.

C. M. Woolsey, Chairman, and Clerk Walker, of the Board of Supervisors, and Silas Saxton, Superintendent of the Poor, met on Tuesday and audited bills to the amount of $10,000.

E. B. Litchfield, at one time identified with the Rondout & Oswego Railroad—now Ulster & Delaware Railroad—died in Brooklyn on Sunday. He was born in Delhi.

A species of vandalism practiced in this City by people whose moral character is at low ebb is entering gardens and stealing flowers and destroying plants.

People in a number of near-by localities are exercised over the question: "Shall we have a street-sprinkler?" This City can spare several of its water-squirters.

The woods on the south bank of the Rondout Creek present a handsome appearance. The recent copious rains caused all Nature to smile.

Word was received in Rondout this afternoon that Captain Edward Meyers, of Athens, is lying at the point of death.

The new coal elevators of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company add to the hum of industry along the Rondout Creek.

Services will be held in St. Peter's German Catholic Church, Rondout, this evening. The Rev. J. W. Schwinn will preach.

There are cases of illness at the Industrial Home here. The Managers say money is "greatly needed."

There are a number of fine lawn tennis grounds here. Games were in progress this afternoon.

Sunday School children are talking about the near approach of the strawberry festival season.

The heavy rain of last evening did much toward cleaning streets on Rondout hillsides.

Many residences in this City are being painted and otherwise improved.

"Fried dandelion" is said to be a new healthful dainty hereabouts.

OLD SOLDIERS AND THEIR FRIENDS.

Information in Reference to Monument Project—Auxiliary Corps to Meet.

The Committee on Designs and the Commissioners and the members of the General Monumental Committee of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument for Ulster County, to be erected in this City, will meet at the Court House, Thursday night, to decide upon a monument. The following are the names of the members of the Committee: General George H. Sharpe, Augustus Schepmoes, Jervis McEntee, Charles M. Preston, the Rev. W. A. Shaw, Judge William S. Kenyon, the Rev. A. K. Fuller, Edward O'Reilly, E. B. Walker, F. J. Cheney. The Commissioners appointed by the Board of Supervisors are: J. H. Riseley, W. T. Van-Tassel, S. D. Burger, T. H. Tremper, C. M. Woolsey, Robert Loughran, Herman Craft. Agents representing five granite companies will exhibit designs. The amount upon which the agents have made their estimates is $7,500. Owing to the absence of the representatives of two of the granite companies, designs will not be exhibited at the Court House until to-morrow.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the One Hundred and Twentieth Regimental Union was held in Kingston to-day. Arrangements were perfected for visiting the battle-field of Gettysburg and dedicating the monument to be erected at the "angle" of the second day's battle in memory of the One Hundred and Twentieth Regiment.

The following, signed by the President and Secretary of the Regimental Union, has been sent to each member of the Regiment:

Comrade:

The One Hundred and Twentieth Regiment monument will be dedicated on the Gettysburg battlefield on Tuesday, June 25. There will probably be a special train from Kingston early on the morning of June 24, arriving at Gettysburg at 6 P. M. There will be a further notification of the details when made. Meanwhile inform all our friends and get ready to go.

General George H. Sharpe was invited to deliver the oration at the dedicatoty exercises. Adjourned to meet at 7:30 this evening at the same place.

Last night the members of General Grant Post, No. 566, G. A. R., held a meeting in their rooms on The Strand. An invitation extended the Post to attend a Memorial service in the Wurts-Street Baptist Church, on May 29, by the Rev. A. K. Fuller, was accepted. On Memorial Day the Post will decorate soldiers' graves. There will be no parade by this Post in the afternoon of that day. In the evening there will be a banquet held at the Post headquarters, to which Pratt Post has been invited.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Society of General Grant Post, No. 566, G. A. R., will meet at Post Headquarters, Odd Fellows' Hall, The Strand, on Friday, May 17, at 4 P. M., to make arrangements for the celebration of Memorial Day.

ON THE DIAMOND AND RACE TRACK.

What Base Ball Players Did on Tuesday—Horse Race Postponed in Kingston.

Result of yesterday's ball games: National League: At Staten Island—Cleveland 5, New-York 0. At Boston—Boston 13, Pittsburg 9. At Philadelphia—Chicago 7, Philadelphia 5. American Association: At Cincinnati—Brooklyn 4, Cincinnati 0. At St. Louis—St. Louis 7, Baltimore 2. At Kansas City—Kansas City 11, Columbus 10.

Spokane, the fast running horse, of Montana, won the Clark stakes in its race with Proctor Knott at Louisville yesterday. Before the race took place the betting was in favor of Proctor Knott.

Owing to the rain of last night the horse trot, announced to take place on Kingston Driving Park to-day, was postponed.

The members of the Sing Sing Yacht Club will hold their annual regatta on Memorial Day.

STILL FAST ON THE SOUTH DIKE HERE

A Wrecker will Try to Get Isabella and Sylvan Shore Off To-Morrow.

The steam passenger yachts Isabella and Sylvan Shore, which were wrecked on the south dike in the Rondout Creek on Tuesday morning, still lie in the same position. Yesterday George H. Powers, of Hudson, the owner of the Isabella, and a lawyer of the same City, who is the owner of the Sylvan Shore, came to this City and looked at the propellers, after which Captain Powers telegraphed to New-York City for a steam wrecker. The engineer of the Isabella is left in charge of the sunken boats until the arrival of the wrecker, which is expected here to-morrow.

In the Ulster Surrogate's Court.

The following business has been transacted in the Ulster Surrogate's Court in Kingston:

Releases of Theodore B. Floyd, Helen C. Chichester and Sarah F. Hill to Mahaluh Floyd and Benjamin Floyd, Administrators, etc., of Charles Floyd, Shandaken, filed.

Citations issued to prove the will of Emeline B. Chichester, town of Shandaken, returnable June 10; also for judicial settlement of the estate of Abraham Weeks, of Plattekill, returnable June 3.

Letters of administration in the estate of Emeline Lord, town of Shandaken, issued to John A. Lord, of that place; also to Sarah J. Woolsey and John Titus, Jr., in the estate of Daniel I. Woolsey, town of Wawarsing.

More May Fish Stories.

Mrs. S. W. Hester, of Kingston, is 78 years old, and vigorous for her age. Yesterday she went fishing with a party at Eddyville. One of the fish she caught was a cat-fish that weighed three pounds.

A man fishing on Abbey's dock this afternoon caught a striped bass that weighed about three pounds.

Many eels are being caught by "dock" fishermen in the Hudson River. "Bobs" are used.

Affairs of Friendly Societies.

The members of Cremieux Lodge, Knights of Honor, of Rondout, will celebrate their fifth anniversary, to-night, at Englert's Hall. The Committee of Arrangements is composed as follows: Adolph Israel, C. Liss, A. Metzgar, G. A. Woelfersheine and R. Blum.

The Royal Arch degree will be conferred in Mt. Horeb Chapter, No. 75, R. A. M., Kingston, this evening.

What William Smith Saw.

William Smith, Secretary of Ulster County Sunday Schools, has returned from the meeting of the Greene County Sunday School Association, held at Lexington. He took the route via Shandaken, and went by stage through the celebrated Westkill. Cut in the Catskill Mountains. In this gorge he found ice four feet in thickness. Mr. Smith gives a glowing description of the scenery.

Fire Over-the-River.

A fire, which is believed to have been caused by lightning, occurred last night east of Rhinebeck, Dutchess County. As the reflection of the flames were seen in this City, the building burned must have been a large one and filled with inflammable material.

The Local Shipping News.

The whistle of the steamer "City of Kingston" was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek last night at 10:25 o'clock.

There arrived at tide-water, at Eddyville, yesterday, 14 Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, laden with 1,900 tons of coal.

Took Their Own Lives.

Robert Martin, a farmer aged 70 years, hanged himself yesterday at Florida, Orange County. His mind had been affected.

General A. Anderson, of Sing Sing-on-the-Hudson, committed suicide by shooting, in Philadelphia, to-day.

Journalistic.

William W. Harding, for many years proprietor and publisher of the Philadelphia Inquirer, died this morning from a complication of diseases.

ONLY FOUR HOTEL LICENSES

GRANTED BY BOARD OF EXCISE OF THIS CITY TO-DAY.

Four More Licenses Will be Granted to Proprietors of Bona Fide Hotels—The Ultimatum of the Commissioners Announced—What Certain Disappointed Men Said.

This forenoon the Board of Excise met at the City Hall, to grant licenses. There was a large number of saloon keepers and so-called "hotel men" present. The latter were on the anxious seat.

The Chairman of the Board, John J. Groves, announced that the Commissioners had decided to grant no hotel licenses except where the parties applying for such have hotel accommodations. He also stated that the Board had decided to grant only eight hotel licenses in the entire City at the present session.

Commissioner Myers said that the following named hotels would be granted licenses: Mansion House, Bronson's Hotel, Fisher's Hotel, Washington Hill, Kingston Hotel, Eagle Hotel, Clinton Hotel, Lasher's Hotel.

Of these eight, the proprietors of Bronson's Hotel, Fisher's Hotel, Washington Hall and Eagle Hotel, made application for licenses. The Board granted the applications.

Nicholas Matthews, James Serffenth, Jacob Ludwig, John Dempsey, Frederick Bauer, Louis Drautz, Joseph A. Costello, Seba Tiencken, Michael Flick, Ferdinand Myer, Patrick Fitzgerald, Peter Lueffgen, J. H. Dittus, Joseph W. Scully, Ernest Steuding, Philip Cullen, James Cullen, Sisman Newland, Ida Fischer, John Weiss, Michael Henry, Albert Adams, Walter Simpson & Co., P. J. O'Pray, Michael Phelan, Eagle Hotel, W. P. Cole, Peter Barmann, George N. Tietjen, Otto Lang, Thomas Burke, Thomas Rigney.

When the Chairman had ceased talking the Commissioners were surrounded by applicants for hotel licenses. Nicholas Matthews, who keeps a "place" in Ponckhockie, said that he had ample accommodations for a hotel, and that he was entitled to a license. One of the Commissioners, on behalf of the Board, replied that it was the Board's duty to weigh matters. Matthews took a back seat. Ferdinand Meyer, who runs a "place" at the junction of Hasbrouck and Delaware-avenues, demurred against the action of the Board. He said that he had kept a saloon or hotel for the past 25 years and that he had always obeyed the law. He asserted that he had accommodations for a hotel and invited the Commissioners to "call around" and inspect his house. He concluded by demanding to know the reason why he should not be granted a hotel license. The Chairman told Meyer that the Commissioners were going to obey the law as nearly as possible, and would not shirk their duty. Mr. Groves also stated that it did not follow because a person had all the requirements for a hotel that he must be granted a license. Whether the neighborhood, in which the applicant intended doing business, needed a hotel would be considered.

Failing to secure hotel licenses, a number of applicants "took out" ale and beer licenses. Other applicants for hotel licenses went into the hallway and discussed the situation. The action taken by the Evangelical Alliance before the Board about a week ago was bitterly denounced, one man saying that the ministers were getting too officious "sticking their noses in everywhere."

Drug licenses were granted as follows: F. J. R. Clark and Cooper & Hardenburgh.

NOTES ABOUT CURRENT LITERATURE.

Work of a Former Lady Resident of Milton, Ulster County—Articles in Magazines.

The editor of the Magazine of American History has another chapter of centennial information in the May number, "Washington's Historical Luncheon in Elizabeth." The illustrations include a sketch of the Boudinot mansion, in which the luncheon took place, and engravings of the old china and silverware used on that memorable occasion. This same table service is in perfect preservation, and was placed before President Harrison at the luncheon given in his honor on April 29, 1889. "Oak Hill, House of President Monroe," is also by the editor. Mrs. Lamb's style of description is so captivating, and there is such a subtle charm in her gossipy way of telling things, that these two papers might make up a whole number—but they don't. They are only a half of its wealth. We can only mention two more, "The Harrison's History," by Mrs. Ella B. Washington, and "Reminiscences of Mrs. Bradford," the last of the Washington Circle, by J. J. Boudinot.

The most remote point reached by George Kenban in his Siberian trip was the mines of Kara, 5,000 miles from St. Petersburg and about 1,000 from the Pacific coast. The narrative of his adventures and discoveries at these mines will begin in the June Century and be continued through several numbers. It may be said to mark the culmination of Mr. Kennan's papers. The mines of Kara are the private property of His Majesty the Tsar, and are worked for his benefit, and it is to them that the "Nihilists" are sent when the Tsar is pleased to commute a death sentence to penal servitude in the mines. Hence an unusual number of political prisoners are gathered at Kara, and Mr. Kennan made the best use of his time while there to make their acquaintance and obtain trustworthy information regarding their life.

The May St. Nicholas has a frontispiece drawn by Mary Hallock Foote, formerly of Milton, Ulster County, called "The Babies' Sunny Corner." "The Belles of St. Anne," by Mrs. Catherwood, is concluded. Tudor Jenks has a funny little story of "A Lost Opportunity," illustrated by Birch. "Daddy Jake, the Runaway," by Joel Chandler Harris, ends in this number and contains one of "Uncle Remus's" delightful stories. "A Bit of Color," by Sarah Orne Jewett, grows more interesting each month. E. H. Barbour describes the short life of "A Queer Pet," a two-headed turtle. This number is full of pretty rhymes and pictures.

Wide Awake for May is an excellent number.

Record of Amusements Here.

Concerning the play and the players to be on the boards at Liscomb's Opera House on Tuesday evening, May 21, the Syracuse Courier has printed this:

A new version of Robert Louis Stevenson's weird novel, "The Strange Case of Jekyll and Hyde," was placed upon the stage for the first time last night. Under the title of "Good Against Evil"—Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde—a new impersonator of the benign Jekyll and the monstrous Hyde came forth, and, in the metaphysical as well as the theatrical aspect of the dual role, triumphed in a notable degree. The author had declared in advance that his conception of the work is the result of his own study of the novel, utterly unaffected by Mr. Mansfield's prior presentation of a stage version. It was conceded by those of last night's audience, who were prepared to institute the comparison, that Mr. Davidson had not borrowed of Mansfield.

Barnum & Bailey's show will be exhibited in this City on Friday, May 24. The attractions to be presented are greater and more varied than ever before.

"Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works" will attract a large audience to Washington Hall on Tuesday evening next.

Churchmen Compare Notes.

The State Conference of Unitarian Churches closed its spring meeting in Troy to-day. The churches of New-York, Brooklyn, Yonkers, Pittsfield, Mass., and Trenton, N. J., were represented. Essays were read and discussed. It was decided to hold the annual State Convention in New-York during the first week in November.

The New-York Conference of the A. M. E. Church was opened to-day, at noon, in the Zion A. M. E. Church, at Troy. Bishop J. W. Hood, D. D., of North-Carolina, presided. About 50 delegates are present representing 32 churches, with a church attendance of 15,000.

IMPORTANT TO RAILROAD MEN.

A. E. Smith has been for forty-nine years road master on the Boston & Maine system and is now residing at Great Falls, N. H. He says trackmen, brakemen, firemen, engineers and conductors, as well as baggage masters and expressmen, are subject to kidney disease above all others. All, therefore, will be interested in the statement of his experience. "I have used Brown's Sarsaparilla for kidney and liver troubles, and can truly say it has done more for me than all the doctors I ever employed, and I have had occasion to require the services of the best physicians in the State. My wife also has been greatly benefited by its use.

A. E. SMITH,
Road Master B. & M. R. R."

The kidneys have been labored hard all winter, as the pores of the skin have been closed, but now the springtime has come, and they need some aid. May be you have that pain across the back; that tired feeling; those drawing down pains. If so, you can get immediate relief by following the example of Mr. Smith and his wife, and use that never-failing and grand corrector for the kidneys, liver and blood.

CITY AND SUBURBAN NEWS.

BITS OF CHAT AND GOSSIP OVERHEARD HERE TO-DAY.

A Rondout Clergyman's Views About a Growing Western City—Money Asked for By the Industrial Home Managers—Good And Bad Roadways—A New Dainty Here.

The Rev. A. K. Fuller, of the Wurts-Street Baptist Church, who has decided, after September next, to labor in Sioux Falls, Dakota, recently returned from a two weeks' visit to that growing Western City. Mr. Fuller brought home pictures of the most prominent buildings. They show imposing structures, of the latest style architecture. They are nearly all built of stone, taken from quarries on the outskirts of the place. It is called jasper, or Sioux Falls granite, said by geologists to be the hardest building stone known. Five railroads enter Sioux Falls. Six years ago a young lawyer, a friend of Mr. Fuller, went to Sioux Falls to seek his fortune. To-day he is a rich man, and has been elected to a high office in the affairs of the Territory. The President of one of the largest banks in Sioux Falls was a college classmate of Mr. Fuller, and he told his old friend that he had "struck it rich" by taking Horace Greely's advice about "going West." The future of Sioux Falls, Mr. Fuller opines, is a bright one. Residents there predict that in 10 years time it will be a City of 60,000 inhabitants.

Much is still being said about roadways, good and bad, in this City and vicinity. In other cities similar talk is heard. In discussing the matter, the Rochester Union says:

If there is any city in the world that does not complain of its pavements it would be interesting to learn where that city is and what its pavements are made of. Some cities are worse paved than others. Rochester, for instance, has a good many miles of worn-out macadam that is about as bad as any semblance of a pavement can be. But there is fair ground for arguing that no city pavement is good. They are all bad, but some are worse than others. Any pavement that is going to be in good condition in the spring and fall must be too hard to be pleasant for use in summer. Asphalt is smooth, slippery, noisy under horses' feet—though quiet for wheels—and too hard for the equine hoof. Block stone pavements are noisy for wheels, rough and uneven. Asphalt wears out your horse and stone blocks shake your carriage to pieces. Macadam, when it is new and good, is satisfactory to man and beast. Unhappily, in Rochester, it is only good while it is new. It cannot stand wet weather, and the cost of keeping it in repair makes it too costly a luxury for general use. The philosophic citizen approaches the pavement question with the conviction that all pavements are bad, and that the best he can do is to get the one that is least objectionable. Blessed are such citizens for there is some possibility that they will be satisfied.

"There are people in this City whose custom I do not care for," said a Rondout groceryman this forenoon. "They are men and women known to us tradesmen as 'feelers.' A 'feeler' is a person who enters a store and wants to feel or squeeze everything there is in it before he or she buys. Often no purchase is made. If the 'feeler' is a man he must feel of the cheese to see if it is not too soft or too hard; squeeze the apples to find out whether they are solid or not; sift the sugar through his hands, to see that there is no sand in it; pat the flour in order to see if it will lie smooth, and do a hundred and one other cranky things, before he is satisfied. Some women are worse than men in this respect."

It is pointed out that though the art of dictation is almost a new art here, yet it is spreading rapidly and certain business men are beginning to understand that much of their lives have been wasted in the mere mechanical drudgery of letter writing, and that through employing a competent amanuensis they are now enabled to get off their correspondence with the least possible friction and the smallest amount of time.

Comptroller Meyers, of New-York City, yesterday wrote to all of the heads of departments and to Senator Hendricks, of the Senate Committee on Cities, urging the passage of the bill now in that committee imposing a license fee of from $1 to $25 on the holders of sidewalk stand permits. The computed annual revenue to New-York City is $360,000. Issuing stand permits in this City would be a source of revenue.

There is a spring of pure water called the "Indian Spring," near Stumpy Field here. According to a fairy tradition it derived its name from the fact that an Indian maiden fell in the spring and was drowned. It is said that for many years after, when gazing intently on the water, a person could see her smiling face.

A large number of boys are employed on the "Island Docks" of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company here, picking slate from the coal. The little fellows return home every evening with their faces begrimed with dirt, but they make an honest living and find the business of picking slate quite remunerative.

A citizen experimented with chewing gum yesterday. Several men at work in his office were complaining of the heat and talking incessantly. He procured a few sticks of chewing gum and gave each man a piece. Soon there was silence. No one thought of the weather.

This morning an agent of a monument company placed, temporarily, two bronze figures, representing a soldier and sailor, on the porch in front of the Court House. The figures are seven feet in height and weigh 1,000 pounds each.

Bad boys place stones on the Kingston City Horse Railroad tracks. This morning a car was stopped twice going up Union-avenue hill in order that the driver could clear the tracks of stones that had been placed on the rails.

C. M. Woolsey, Chairman, and Clerk Walker, of the Board of Supervisors, and Silas Saxton, Superintendent of the Poor, met on Tuesday and audited bills to the amount of $10,000.

E. B. Litchfield, at one time identified with the Rondout & Oswego Railroad—now Ulster & Delaware Railroad—died in Brooklyn on Sunday. He was born in Delhi.

A species of vandalism practiced in this City by people whose moral character is at low ebb is entering gardens and stealing flowers and destroying plants.

People in a number of near-by localities are exercised over the question: "Shall we have a street-sprinkler?" This City can spare several of its water-squirters.

The woods on the south bank of the Rondout Creek present a handsome appearance. The recent copious rains caused all Nature to smile.

Word was received in Rondout this afternoon that Captain Edward Meyers, of Athens, is lying at the point of death.

Services will be held in St. Peter's German Catholic Church, Rondout, this evening. The Rev. J. W. Schwinn will preach.

There are a number of fine lawn tennis grounds here. Games were in progress this afternoon.

Sunday School children are talking about the near approach of the strawberry festival season.

The heavy rain of last evening did much toward cleaning streets on Rondout hillsides.

OLD SOLDIERS AND THEIR FRIENDS.

Information in Reference to Monument Project—Auxiliary Corps to Meet.

The Committee on Designs and the Commissioners and the members of the General Monumental Committee of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument for Ulster County, to be erected in this City, will meet at the Court House, Thursday night, to decide upon a monument. The following are the names of the members of the Committee: General George H. Sharpe, Augustus Schepmoes, Jervis McEntee, Charles M. Preston, the Rev. W. A. Shaw, Judge William S. Kenyon, the Rev. A. K. Fuller, Edward O'Reilly, E. B. Walker, F. J. Cheney. The Commissioners appointed by the Board of Supervisors are: J. H. Riseley, W. T. Van-Tassel, S. D. Burger, T. H. Tremper, C. M. Woolsey, Robert Loughran, Herman Craft. Agents representing five granite companies will exhibit designs. The amount upon which the agents have made their estimates is $7,500. Owing to the absence of the representatives of two of the granite companies, designs will not be exhibited at the Court House until to-morrow.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the One Hundred and Twentieth Regimental Union was held in Kingston to-day. Arrangements were perfected for visiting the battle-field of Gettysburg and dedicating the monument to be erected at the "angle" of the second day's battle in memory of the One Hundred and Twentieth Regiment.

The following, signed by the President and Secretary of the Regimental Union, has been sent to each member of the Regiment:

Comrade:

The One Hundred and Twentieth Regiment monument will be dedicated on the Gettysburg battle-field on Tuesday, June 25. There will probably be a special train from Kingston early on the morning of June 24, arriving at Gettysburg at 6 P. M. There will be a further notification of the details when made. Meanwhile inform all our friends and get ready to go.

General George H. Sharpe was invited to deliver the oration at the dedicatory exercises. Adjourned to meet at 7:30 this evening at the same place.

Last night the members of General Grant Post, No. 566, G. A. R., held a meeting in their rooms on The Strand. An invitation extended the Post to attend a Memorial service in the Wurts-Street Baptist Church, on May 29, by the Rev. A. K. Fuller, was accepted. On Memorial Day the Post will decorate soldiers' graves. There will be no parade by this Post in the afternoon of that day. In the evening there will be a banquet held at the Post headquarters, to which Pratt Post has been invited.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Society of General Grant Post, No. 566, G. A. R., will meet at Post Headquarters, Odd Fellows' Hall, The Strand, on Friday, May 17, at 4 P. M., to make arrangements for the celebration of Memorial Day.

Spokane, the fast running horse, of Montana, won the Clark stakes in its race with Proctor Knott at Louisville yesterday. Before the race took place the betting was in favor of Proctor Knott.

Owing to the rain of last night the horse trot, announced to take place on Kingston Driving Park to-day, was postponed.

The members of the Sing Sing Yacht Club will hold their annual regatta on Memorial Day.

STILL FAST ON THE SOUTH DIKE HERE

A Wrecker will Try to Get Isabella and Sylvan Shore Off To-Morrow.

The steam passenger yachts Isabella and Sylvan Shore, which were wrecked on the south dike in the Rondout Creek on Tuesday morning, still lie in the same position. Yesterday George H. Powers, of Hudson, the owner of the Isabella, and a lawyer of the same City, who is the owner of the Sylvan Shore, came to this City and looked at the propellers, after which Captain Powers telegraphed to New-York City for a steam wrecker. The engineer of the Isabella is left in charge of the sunken boats until the arrival of the wrecker, which is expected here to-morrow.

In the Ulster Surrogate's Court.

The following business has been transacted in the Ulster Surrogate's Court in Kingston:

Releases of Theodore B. Floyd, Helen C. Chichester and Sarah F. Hill to Mahaluh Floyd and Benjamin Floyd, Administrators, etc., of Charles Floyd, Shandaken, filed.

Citations issued to prove the will of Emeline B. Chichester, town of Shandaken, returnable June 10; also for judicial settlement of the estate of Abraham Weeks, of Plattekill, returnable June 3.

Affairs of Friendly Societies.

The members of Cremieux Lodge, Knights of Honor, of Rondout, will celebrate their fifth anniversary, to-night, at Englert's Hall. The Committee of Arrangements is composed as follows: Adolph Israel, C. Liss, A. Metzgar, G. A. Woelfersheine and R. Blum.

The Royal Arch degree will be conferred in Mt. Horeb Chapter, No. 75, R. A. M., Kingston, this evening.

What William Smith Saw.

William Smith, Secretary of Ulster County Sunday Schools, has returned from the meeting of the Greene County Sunday School Association, held at Lexington. He took the route via Shandaken, and went by stage through the celebrated Westkill. Cut in the Catskill Mountains. In this gorge he found ice four feet in thickness. Mr. Smith gives a glowing description of the scenery.

Fire Over-the-River.

A fire, which is believed to have been caused by lightning, occurred last night east of Rhinebeck, Dutchess County. As the reflection of the flames were seen in this City, the building burned must have been a large one and filled with inflammable material.

The Local Shipping News.

The whistle of the steamer "City of Kingston" was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek last night at 10:25 o'clock.

There arrived at tide-water, at Eddyville, yesterday, 14 Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, laden with 1,900 tons of coal.

ONLY FOUR HOTEL LICENSES

GRANTED BY BOARD OF EXCISE OF THIS CITY TO-DAY.

Four More Licenses Will be Granted to Proprietors of Bona Fide Hotels—The Ultimatum of the Commissioners Announced—What Certain Disappointed Men Said.

This forenoon the Board of Excise met at the City Hall, to grant licenses. There was a large number of saloon keepers and so-called "hotel men" present. The latter were on the anxious seat.

The Chairman of the Board, John J. Groves, announced that the Commissioners had decided to grant no hotel licenses except where the parties applying for such have hotel accommodations. He also stated that the Board had decided to grant only eight hotel licenses in the entire City at the present session.

Commissioner Myers said that the following named hotels would be granted licenses: Mansion House, Bronson's Hotel, Fisher's Hotel, Washington Hall, Kingston Hotel, Eagle Hotel, Clinton Hotel, Lasher's Hotel.

Of these eight, the proprietors of Bronson's Hotel, Fisher's Hotel, Washington Hall and Eagle Hotel, made application for licenses. The Board granted the applications.

Nicholas Matthews, James Serffenth, Jacob Ludwig, John Dempsey, Frederick Bauer, Louis Drautz, Joseph A. Costello, Seba Tienecken, Michael Flick, Ferdinand Myer, Patrick Fitzgerald, Peter Lueffgen, J. H. Dittus, Joseph W. Scully, Ernest Steuding, Philip Cullen, James Cullen, Simon Newland, Ida Fischer, John Weiss, Michael Henry, Albert Adams, Walter Simpson & Co., P. J. O'Pray, Michael Phelan, Eagle Hotel, W. P. Cole, Peter Barmann, George N. Tietjen, Otto Lang, Thomas Burke, Thomas Rigney.

When the Chairman had ceased talking the Commissioners were surrounded by applicants for hotel licenses. Nicholas Matthews, who keeps a "place" in Ponckhockie, said that he had ample accommodations for a hotel, and that he was entitled to a license. One of the Commissioners, on behalf of the Board, replied that it was the Board's duty to weigh matters. Matthews took a back seat. Ferdinand Meyer, who runs a "place" at the junction of Hasbrouck and Delaware avenues, demurred against the action of the Board. He said that he had kept a saloon or hotel for the past 25 years and that he had always obeyed the law. He asserted that he had accommodations for a hotel and invited the Commissioners to "call around" and inspect his house. He concluded by demanding to know the reason why he should not be granted a hotel license. The Chairman told Meyer that the Commissioners were going to obey the law as nearly as possible, and would not shirk their duty. Mr. Groves also stated that it did not follow because a person had all the requirements for a hotel that he must be granted a license. Whether the neighborhood, in which the applicant intended doing business, needed a hotel would be considered.

Failing to secure hotel licenses, a number of applicants "took out" ale and beer licenses. Other applicants for hotel licenses went into the hallway and discussed the situation. The action taken by the Evangelical Alliance before the Board about a week ago was bitterly denounced, one man saying that the ministers were getting too officious "sticking their noses in everywhere."

The following persons were granted ale and beer licenses: Joseph Costello, William S. Johnston, John Maxwell, John Hart, James Glennon, Jr., Michael J. Reynolds, Christian Lang, Nicholas A. Huber, Bernard Duffy, Louis Drautz, John Fitch, Casper Schick, James W. Glennon, Mary Flick, James McManus.

Drug licenses were granted as follows: F. J. R. Clark and Cooper & Hardenburgh.

NOTES ABOUT CURRENT LITERATURE.

Work of a Former Lady Resident of Milton, Ulster County—Articles in Magazines.

The editor of the Magazine of American History has another chapter of centennial information in the May number, "Washington's Historical Luncheon in Elizabeth." The illustrations include a sketch of the Boudinot mansion, in which the luncheon took place, and engravings of the old china and silverware used on that memorable occasion. This same table service is in perfect preservation, and was placed before President Harrison at the luncheon given in his honor on April 29, 1889. "Oak Hill, House of President Monroe," is also by the editor. Mrs. Lamb's style of description is so captivating, and there is such a subtle charm in her gossipy way of telling things, that these two papers might make up a whole number—but they don't. They are only a half of its wealth. We can only mention two more, "The Harrison's History," by Mrs. Ella B. Washington, and "Reminiscences of Mrs. Bradford," the last of the Washington Circle, by J. J. Boudinot.

The most remote point reached by George Kennan in his Siberian trip was the mines of Kara, 5,000 miles from St. Petersburg and about 1,000 from the Pacific coast. The narrative of his adventures and discoveries at these mines will begin in the June Century and be continued through several numbers. It may be said to mark the culmination of Mr. Kennan's papers. The mines of Kara are the private property of His Majesty the Tsar, and are worked for his benefit, and it is to them that the "Nihilists" are sent when the Tsar is pleased to commute a death sentence to penal servitude in the mines. Hence an unusual number of political prisoners are gathered at Kara, and Mr. Kennan made the best use of his time while there to make their acquaintance and obtain trustworthy information regarding their life.

The May St. Nicholas has a frontispiece drawn by Mary Hallock Foote, formerly of Milton, Ulster County, called "The Babies' Sunny Corner." "The Belles of St. Anne," by Mrs. Catherwood, is concluded. Tudor Jenks has a funny little story of "A Lost Opportunity," illustrated by Birch. "Daddy Jake, the Runaway," by Joel Chandler Harris, ends in this number and contains one of "Uncle Remus's" delightful stories. "A Bit of Color," by Sarah Orne Jewett, grows more interesting each month. E. H. Barbour describes the short life of "A Queer Pet," a two-headed turtle. This number is full of pretty rhymes and pictures.

Wide Awake for May is an excellent number.

Record of Amusements Here.

Concerning the play and the players to be on the boards at Liscomb's Opera House on Tuesday evening, May 21, the Syracuse Courier has printed this:

A new version of Robert Louis Stevenson's weird novel, "The Strange Case of Jekyll and Hyde," was placed upon the stage for the first time last night. Under the title of "Good Against Evil"—Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde—a new impersonator of the benign Jekyll and the monstrous Hyde came forth, and, in the metaphysical as well as the theatrical aspect of the dual role, triumphed in a notable degree. The author had declared in advance that his conception of the work is the result of his own study of the novel, utterly unaffected by Mr. Mansfield's prior presentation of a stage version. It was conceded by those of last night's audience, who were prepared to institute the comparison, that Mr. Davidson had not borrowed of Mansfield.

Barnum & Bailey's show will be exhibited in this City on Friday, May 24. The attractions to be presented are greater and more varied than ever before.

"Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works" will attract a large audience to Washington Hall on Tuesday evening next.

Churchmen Compare Notes.

The State Conference of Unitarian Churches closed its spring meeting in Troy to-day. The churches of New-York, Brooklyn, Yonkers, Pittsfield, Mass., and Trenton, N. J., were represented. Essays were read and discussed. It was decided to hold the annual State Convention in New-York during the first week in November.

The New-York Conference of the A. M. E. Church was opened to-day, at noon, in the Zion A. M. E. Church, at Troy. Bishop J. W. Hood, D. D., of North-Carolina, presided. About 50 delegates are present representing 32 churches, with a church attendance of 15,000.

IMPORTANT TO RAILROAD MEN.

A. E. Smith has been for forty-nine years road master on the Boston & Maine system and is now residing at Great Falls, N. H. He says trackmen, brakemen, firemen, engineers and conductors, as well as baggage masters and expressmen, are subject to kidney disease above all others. All, therefore, will be interested in the statement of his experience. "I have used Brown's Sarsaparilla for kidney and liver troubles, and can truly say it has done more for me than all the doctors I ever employed, and I have had occasion to require the services of the best physicians in the State. My wife also has been greatly benefited by its use.
A. E. SMITH,
Road Master B. & M. R. R."

The kidneys have been labored hard all winter, as the pores of the skin have been closed, but now the springtime has come, and they need some aid. May be you have that pain across the back; that tired feeling; those drawing down pains. If so, you can get immediate relief by following the example of Mr. Smith and his wife, and use that never-failing and grand corrector for the kidneys, liver and blood.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE friends of the missing Dr. Cronin of Chicago are dredging Lake Michigan for his body to-day.

IN twenty-six of the Philadelphia wards the issuing of liquor licenses is completed. The number issued is 1,602, against 1,109 in 1888. There are five more wards to dispose of.

BOTH North Dakota and South Dakota elected a large majority of Republican delegates to their constitutional conventions yesterday. In Montana the result is reported to be close, and the majority in the convention is not expected to exceed five either way.

THE Associated Fanciers of the United States have received an order for 200 bull dogs for the Standard Oil Company, to be employed in guarding refineries and warehouses. The price agreed upon is $15 a head. The transaction has cornered the bull-dog market.

EMIGRANTS are now rushing to the Sioux reservation in Dakota, and the boom promises to equal that of Oklahoma within the next sixty days. An agent is arranging for the reception of 600 families as soon as the success of the Sioux commission's negotiations is assured.

THERE are 10,000 quarter sections in the Oklahoma country open for settlement, and of these only 1,800 have been filed upon. There remain, therefore, 8,200 opportunities for farms for which there are no claimants. There were probably some exaggerations in the accounts of the great rush.

EX-PRESIDENT Cleveland has leased, with the privilege of purchasing, a house at the corner of Madison avenue and Sixty-eighth street, New York. This is in Hon. Ernest H. Crosby's Assembly district. Though Mr. Cleveland is a Democrat himself, he seeks a quiet and respectable neighborhood for his good wife.

IT was decided in Judge Coxe's court at Rochester yesterday, that Lester B. Faulkner, the once notable Democrat and chairman of the state committee of that party, would have to stand trial for bank wrecking. Faulkner's political influence has sufficed to enable him to elude justice for a year or more, but the toils are beginning to tighten.

THE Assembly passed the Vedder liquor tax bill yesterday. It had already passed the Senate. The Governor can now choose between this and the Excise Commission bill, if he is really anxious for fairer taxation of the liquor traffic. Or he can veto both or allow them to die by the pocket veto if adjournment takes place to-morrow.

A LAW has been passed in Pennsylvania and is now in operation which forbids the sale of cigarettes to persons under 16 years old, and heavy penalties are provided. The boys have accordingly taken to clay pipes, and it is likely that their health will be improved, as good smoking-tobacco is supposed to be less fatal than the murderous cigarette.

THE English Brewing Syndicate has bought George Ringler's brewery in New York, price $9,500,000. Mr. Ringler remains in charge at a salary of $10,000. The English syndicate will soon be in full charge of the government of the state of New York, because of the dependence of Gov. Hill upon the great political influence of their brew.

"YOU suffer the death punishment by being executed by electricity," is the formula used by Judge Childs in sentencing William Kemmler of Buffalo yesterday. It is a little clumsy and circuitous, but the prisoner understands it, and the electrical apparatus will make no mistake. The business of murder does not increase in safety by the change of the law.

POSTMASTER VANCOTT calls for $250,000 with which to increase the facilities of the New York Postoffice. Postmaster Pearson killed himself by doing the work that he could not hire a clerk to do because of the cheese paring policy of a Democratic Congress. Mr. VanCott is no such man, and he has no such party to deal with. The postoffice will be run as it ought to be, the necessary money will be provided, and the profit over expenditure will increase proportionately.

EMIGRANTS are wanted so urgently in the South American republic of Colombia that the government offers to pay the passage of a settler on shipboard and to any point in the interior where he wishes to locate, and will give him 250 acres of land, a cow, two pigs, a plow, help him build a house, and pay him $6 a month for a time not stated. Colombia is almost under the equator, and crops grow, flowers bloom and fruits ripen the year round. And the emigrant needs to take along only a very thin suit.

THE Assembly yesterday threw out the report of Mr. Fish's committee of investigation upon the ceiling scandal and adopted that of the appropriations committee, headed by Mr. Ainsworth, instead. The vote to substitute the Ainsworth report was 63 to 44. This report contains no recommendation for the prosecution of Snaith, Sullivan and Andrews for robbing the state, and it is intimated that these worthies expended a good deal of money to carry the report through. Mr. Rice voted for and Mr. Bush against the Ainsworth report. Mr. Davidson did not vote.

JERSEY justice works with the swiftness and precision of a well-oiled engine. Andrew Grimes, a sailor, was put on trial at May's Landing last Monday for the murder of John Martin on board the coasting schooner Annie Carll on last Christmas day. Thirty hours after the trial began the jury brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree, and in just one minute more Judge Reed had sentenced him to be hanged on the 20th of June. The murder was committed because Martin awakened Grimes from a nap. The latter sprang up in fury, chased Martin into the cabin, cut through the closed door with his knife, and then dispatched the offender with the same weapon. The crime was committed while the vessel lay in the inlet at Atlantic City.

A DEPARTMENT DECISION

In Reference to a Pension That Will Interest Old Soldiers.

THE SHAH OF PERSIA'S TOUR.

IN NEW-YORK STATE LEGISLATURE.

To-Day Said to be the Last Working Day of the Session.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 15.—In the Assembly to-day the Speaker announced that to-day was practically the last working day of the session. He said about 130 bills still remained on the desk ready for final passage. These could all be passed if the members would be attentive and respond on the first roll call.

Hornidge rose to a question of privilege, saying he was not recorded on the Journal yesterday on the question of adopting the Appropriation Committees' report as a substitute for that for the Fish Committee in the ceiling matter and voted in the negative.

The compulsory education bill came from the Senate as amended and was referred to the Committee on Public Education.

Bills passed: Ives', amending the act for the incorporation of clubs; McNaughton's, amending the code relative to attachments; Robertson's, amending the code relative to trial jurors; Robertson's, amending the code relative to the payment of creditors and legatees; McNaughton's, amending the code relative to reports of Referees in Surrogate's Courts; Ryon's, authorizing the Troy Common Council to provide a site for a soldiers' monument. Rhodes', amending the act for the organization and regulation of trust companies; Donaldson's, amending the charter of Stillwater; Depeyster's, amending the act taxing gifts, legacies and collateral inheritances, making the law retroactive to 1886, so far as it relates to legacies to adopted children.

When the dressed beef bill was announced for final passage Saxton attacked it as contrary to the provisions of the United States Constitution. If such a law could be passed with respect to dressed beef, it could be with respect to anything else. The result would be retaliatory legislation in all the states of the Union. Its sanitary principle was a mere pretense. Its object was to prohibit the importation of dressed beef from other states to raise the price of home beef.

Nixon, the introducer of the bill, attacked the dressed beef trust, and declared laws similar to this had been passed in many states and were in operation, with no question raised as to their constitutionality.

Green offered an amendment, which was adopted, providing that nothing in the act shall apply to cattle, sheep or lambs raised in this State. The bill was rejected; ayes, 23; noes, 80.

Bills passed: Fassett's female factory inspection bill; Husted's, appropriating $372,000 for improving the sanitary condition of the Capitol, completing the western stair-case and making repairs to the golden corridor and other portions of the building; M. A. Smith's, for a bridge over the Delaware River at Fremont, Sullivan County.

Speaker Cole's bill, appropriating $60,000 for a Normal and Training School at Watkins, was taken up.

Sloan protested against erecting more Normal Schools. There were already 10 in the State, and in them there was room for many more students.

Fasset said it would baffle the ingenuity of any man to devise a scheme which costs more money than the Normal School system. He hoped this and every other Normal School bill would be defeated, because they were not needed by the educational interest of the State. The bill was passed, 23 to 4; Fasset, Linson, Sloan and Walker.

Laughlin's bill, permitting Buffalo Common Council to issue $80,000 bonds for the purchase of a market site was passed.

Hamilton's motion to take up his cable bill was lost, 25 to 48.

Larmon's motion to take up his tax bill was lost, 28 to 51.

Blumenthal's motion to reconsider the vote by which his bill permitting the New-York Catholic Protectory and Sheltering Arms to participate in the distribution of the Common School Fund was lost: ayes 57; noes 28.

Crosby reported from the Committee on Charitable Institutions Fassett's bill to promote the care, custody and curative treatment of the pauper and indigent insane, except in New-York, Kings and Monroe counties. Crosby moved to go into Committee on the bill. Lost; ayes, 50; noes, 52.

Coon reported his compulsory education bill. The Senate amendments were concurred in and the bill passed; ayes, 75; noes, 32.

Gallup reported for the consideration of the House, from the Canal Committee, Langbein's $750,000 canal improvement bill, Gallup, Little, Coon, Groat and Baker dissenting and in favor of the $600,000 bill. On motion of Shehan and by a two-thirds vote, the House considered the bill in Committee, reported progress and it was ordered to a third reading. Gallup endeavored to move to substitute the $600,000 bill, but was prevented by a point of order.

Sheehan offered a resolution, which was adopted by unanimous consent, directing that the $750,000 canal appropriation bill shall be placed on final passage this evening.

IN THE STATE SENATE.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 15.—In the Senate to-day Blumenthal's general escheat bill came from the Assembly, but Robertson objected to its being received, because a similar bill had already been killed by the Senate.

Fassett's bill for the appointment by the Governor, with the consent of the Senate, of three competent persons as Commissioners to frame and report to the next Legislature general acts on the subject of villages, banks, taxes and the poor, was passed.

Bills passed: McNaughton's, amending Binghamton's charter.

Seven bills, providing for normal and training schools, were reported favorable from the Finance Committee, Sloan and Fassett dissenting to all of them and Linson to part of them.

Bills passed: Gallup's, two annual appropriation bills; Laughlin's, relative to the acquisition of lands for public markets in Buffalo; Gallup's, relative to the commitment, custody and discharge of the insane; Comstock's, for Government building in Watertown; Pearsall's, for fishways in the dam over the Chenango River at Chenango; Peck's, relative to Union free schools at Cortland; Guenther's, appropriating $20,000 for an iron bridge over the Tonawanda Creek at Tonawanda; R. P. Bush's Elmira sewer bond bill; Husted's, allowing Cornell College to use a portion of the moneys appropriated by the General Government for the establishment of agricultural colleges.

Bills passed: McAdams', appropriating $35,000 for a Normal and Training School at Whitesboro; Cronin's, appropriating $60,000 for a Normal School at Jamaica, Queens County; Batcheller's, appropriating $60,000 for a Normal and Training School at Saratoga Springs; Messick's, appropriating $25,000 for a Normal and Training School with Academic Department at Fairfield; Mase's, relative to the Trustees of the John Guy Vassar Asylum at Poughkeepsie; DePeyster's, relative to the Associated Fire Department of Poughkeepsie; DePeyster's, for the preservation of moose, wild deer, fish and game; Fassett's, appropriating $6,000 to pay Women Factory Inspectors to be appointed under the bill passed yesterday; Peck's resolution providing for a Committee of Five to examine into the alleged competition of Normal Schools with Academies, and report to the next Legislature.

The Governor sent in the following nominations, which were confirmed: Edwin Allen, of Seneca Castle, to be Loan Commissioner of Ontario County, vice Murray Benham; Oliver G. Sherwin, of Penn Yan, to be Trustee of the Willard Asylum, vice Darius Ogden, deceased; Simon Smith, of Ithaca, to be Commissioner of the State Meteorological Bureau.

Bills passed: Moody's, amending the charter of Geneva; Mase's dog tax bill, with amendments; McNaughton's, relative to commitments to reformatory institutions; Cottrell's, amending the charter of Angelica; Lewis', relative to the Binghamton Fire Department; McMaster's, relative to the claim of Steuben County on account of expenses for prosecuting Thomas Heding.

BILLS THAT HAVE BECOME LAWS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 15.—The following bills have become laws:

Chapter 284, extending the time for the completion of the Schenectady, Albany & North Adams Railroad for two years from date.

Chapter 285, authorizing the Board of Estimate and Apportionment of New-York City to appropriate $1,000 for the use of the Veteran Firemen's Association, of New-York City, in participating in the Washington Inaugural Centennial Celebration.

Chapter 287, amending acts of 1887 and 1888 relative to making the St. Lawrence County Clerk's office salaried. [Not signed.]

Chapter 286, providing for the construction and maintenance of an exterior street along a portion of East River in New-York City. [Not signed.]

Chapter 288, altering the Commissioners' map of Brooklyn by reducing the width of East New-York Avenue. [Not signed.]

Body, With Weights Attached, Found.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, May 15.—The body of a man that had been kept at the bottom of the River with heavy weights was washed ashore at One Hundred and Thirtieth street, this morning. A chunk of iron weighing over 20 pounds was tied to the right leg with packing cord, also a black silk umbrella. The man was about 30 years old and well dressed. There was a lady's gold watch in his pocket and in his scarf a gold pin. The police are endeavoring to establish his identity.

Shah's Triumphal Tour in Russia.

By Cable to The Freeman.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 15.—The Shah of Persia, who is now journeying from Teheran to St. Petersburg, is meeting with a grand reception in Russia. At Erivan the streets through which he passed were lined with troops and at several points there were triumphal arches bearing the inscription: "To the Shah's sacred person." The entire town was brilliantly illuminated at night.

What Secretary Proctor Says.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Secretary Proctor has returned from his Western trip looking refreshed and in good health. He is satisfied with the results of his observation. In a few days Secretary Proctor will visit West Point, N. Y. He says the subject of issuing a proclamation of amnesty to deserters has not been discussed or considered by the President and himself.

Secretaries go on a Pleasure Trip.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Secretaries Blaine and Tracy with a number of officers of the State Department, left Washington this morning for General Agnew's country home, "Naccrema," near Baltimore.

Of Interest to Old Soldiers.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Assistant Secretary Bussey to-day overruled a former adverse decision of the Interior Department, and allowed a pension of aggravation of disease in the service in the case of Rudolph M. Montgomery, late of Company A, One Hundred and Twentieth Ohio Volunteers.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, May 15.—The stock market was again quiet and listless this morning, the fluctuations being extremely small, and except for a few shares the tone was rather hesitating, although some stocks made fractional advances. Union Pacific and Omaha were each ⅛ per cent. below their last night's prices. At the opening Oregon Transcontinental, New-England, Atchison and Union Pacific were the active shares, while St. Paul and Burlington were comparatively quiet, and the rest of the list dull. The tone of the dealings was firm and Missouri Pacific displayed considerable strength, moving up a fraction, but New-England was the leading stock and advanced to 45⅛, but later in the hour prices gave way again and Missouri Pacific retired below its opening prices as did several others, Big Four losing ⅛. At 11 o'clock the market was quiet and rather heavy.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—A year ago Jacob T. Doty was transferred from the Consulate at Bermuda to that of Tahiti, Society Islands. Doty has fallen in love with the Priacess Ralana, of Tahiti. His love has been reciprocated and the pair will soon be married. The Princess is a beautiful and accomplished lady, 18 years of age, and a perfect blonde. She is the daughter of Lord and Lady Dancy, her mother being a native Tahitian Princess and her father an English nobleman. She has had all the advantages of education in France, Germany and England. She is the possessor of immense wealth in her own right. The Princess has not lacked suitors for her hand, all of whom, including the Earl of Dulley, she has refused. Lord Dancy was anxious to have his daughter marry a scion of the English peerage, but gracefully yielded to the wishes of his only child to accept as his son-in-law a sovereign American citizen. Consul Doty is 22 years of age. As a boy he was a Page in the United States Senate. His father was a prominent citizen of Brooklyn.

Father Eagan's Testimony.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, May 15.—Father Egan testified before the Parnell Commission to-day that the leading men of Loughrea belonged to the branch League. No serious crime had been committed from the time of the formation of the Loughrea branch until it was suppressed, except the murder of policeman Lynton. This crime had been condemned at a meeting of the League and witness had denounced it from the altar of his church.

I BELIEVE IT YET.

I.

There's some useful information that I got from mother dear,
One evening when I went my girl to see;
She told me I had better be tasteful in my dress,
If from bitter disappointment I'd be free.
She told that Marks Jacobs made suits the handsomest;
That to his store was just the place to go
That with his help I'd surely win the girl I loved best:
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me that a manly man should dress in manly style,
And always like a gentleman should go;
That for this service I could trust Marks Jacobs all the while;
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

II.

And so I went to Jacobs' store, 184 The Strand,
The next morning at the rising of the sun,
And picked me out the finest that this artist had on hand,
And in just two days the suit complete was done.
Then I hied me to the mansion where lived my Katie Brown,
And her greeting was the sweetest man can know;
She said I was the handsomest, the noblest man in town;
I believed it, for my sweetheart told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me something better yet; she said she would be mine,
That through this life with me she'd gladly go,
If I would wear Marks Jacobs' suits, so fitting, neat and fine;
I believed it, for my Katie told me so.

Marks Jacobs.

THE WOES OF THE TITLED BRIDES.

Some weeks ago we referred to the sorrows of a young heiress of Pittsburg, who married the Count di Montercale of Italy. When she arrived with him at his home in the sunny land she learned that he was the son of the real Count di Montercale's gardener, and that he had stolen his master's title for speculative uses in America. His cruelties, after he had squandered her money, caused her to seek protection from the American legation at Naples, and she was assisted to return to America. She had been in Pittsburg but a little while before her husband appeared on the scene and demanded money as the price of letting her alone. When he found that the money was not forthcoming and that the laws of the United States would protect her from his persecutions, he went around the city trying to sell to the newspapers the story of their troubles which he had written up. He was finally provided with passage money for Europe by the unhappy woman's friends, while she remained in Pittsburg to prosecute her divorce suit.

The marriage of Miss Constable, a wealthy young lady of Baltimore, to the Baron Von Sucrow of Berlin while pursuing her studies in Paris, made a big social sensation a few months ago. The Baron came to this country with his bride, and lived well for a time upon her income. As money grew scarcer he informed her that he must return to Germany with her, to placate his irate father, who, since his marriage, had kept a firm grip upon several millions that belonged to himself. He was sure that the sight of his bride's beauty would melt the stony heart of the old gentleman, who was a noble Baron also. The bride gave him the money with which to buy the tickets for the voyage, and he went out in search of a ship. Weeks went by, but he did not return. At length a letter from him was received, informing her that he had decided to go home alone. The lady took the first steamer and sailed for Europe. Arrived in London, she called upon Baring Brothers, who, the Baron had told her, were his bankers. They had never heard the name of Von Sucrow, neither had the person whom she described as her husband ever had any dealings with them. The bride traveled on to Berlin, only to learn that the Von Sucrow family was equally unknown there. She started with a broken heart on her return voyage, and at London obtained from the American legation a loan to pay her passage home. At last accounts she had not yet reached Baltimore.

Still another disappointed, disgusted and heart-broken woman is Madame Gaston de Fontenilliat, who until December, 1887, was Miss Minnie Smith of New York. The young French nobleman whom she married was the brother of a real Baron and an officer in the army of France, while the lady is herself a sister of Mrs. Wm. K. Vanderbilt. Soon after her marriage, and while living in Paris, Mme. Fontenilliat received a letter from one Mme. Odette, informing her that her husband was indebted to her in the sum of 40,000 francs, and threatening to make things lively for his new family unless the money was paid. Mme. Fontenilliat investigated the matter sufficiently to learn the character of the Odette woman, and the particulars of the intrigue in which her husband had been engaged with her, and then raised the money to meet her demands. But in the meantime Odette had reported the husband's conduct to his Colonel, and he was dismissed from the service in disgrace. He was now penniless and without income, and the couple came to New-York, where the noble husband managed for a time to earn $7 a week. But his wife soon detected him in appropriating and pawning her jewels, and he was also accused of using the property of other inmates of the boarding house in the same way. So at last the bride separated herself from her husband, and knows him no more. The outcome in this case, as in the others, will undoubtedly be a divorce suit.

These cases of disappointment might be multiplied indefinitely by going back a little further in the history of American girls who have accepted foreign husbands and swapped their fortunes for titles. The titles of our American noblemen may seem simpler and may not be shared by their wives, but they are often worth marrying after all. A young woman who came to this city several years ago had the good fortune to contract a happy marriage, and her first letter home in announcement of the event carried great joy to her friends, for she told them that her husband was a captain. She did not then explain, nor has she found occasion to do so since, the difference between a captain in the English army and a captain on the Delaware & Hudson Canal. But the man was honest, industrious and successful, and the good woman would not shrink from a comparison of her condition with that of the average of American girls whose European husbands sport the titles of Counts, Barons, Dukes, Earls, Lords, Princes, etc.

FEDERAL ARCHITECTURE.

Supervising Architect Windrim has been giving expression to some opinions concerning the construction of government buildings which hold out a cheering prospect of improvement in the value and usefulness of these important edifices. He advocates in the first place a national style of architecture, such as is adapted to the needs of the government. He would have them distinguished by some design or peculiarity of construction which would enable them to be recognized as government buildings at once. Government architecture of late years has run counter to this idea, the purpose of the designers having been evidently to present as wide a variety as possible. Hence in one town there will be the hideous Queen Anne style with its excresences jutting out on every side, in another the Gothic, the Renaissance, the Grecian, Doric, Egyptian or Swiss. Some of the effects of these are very pretty, but in most cases they are out of place with their surroundings, especially where a million-dollar building is erected in a ten-dollar town. Mr. Windrim proposes to change all this. A government building is to be a government building wherever located.

Mr. Windrim is for solidity and plainness, first, last and all the time. We hope he will be able to envolve from his idea a style of architecture distinctively American, so that we shall not have to go back to the dark ages for our designs. Our buildings should bear the stamp of endurance and permanence, like our government itself. If the money expended in "gingerbread" work, in towers, porticos, and the many varieties of excrescences that must eventually crumble away, were applied to rendering the walls more massive, the roof more secure, the entrances more impervious to the burglar's tools, and the interior more roomy and convenient, there would be improvement all around. The architecture of America should not be as shifty as a lady's dress, to be put on or off in a moment. The streets of every city show the effect of the passion for new and ever-changing designs in an absence of all uniformity and consistency. The plain but massive residence of a century ago has an humble and abashed look beside the pretentious but unsubstantial Queen Anne disfiguration of to-day, with its countless peaks and gables, its cell-like windows, its stuffy little verandas, and its abominable contrasts of paint. Let Mr. Windrim set an example for all of us, so that those who have the opportunity to follow him may be able to construct something really American and of which their descendants will not be ashamed a century hence.

THE REPUBLICAN WAY.

The state debt of Iowa is only $95,000, though the state paid its full share of the expense of the war, and in the past six years more than a million dollars has been expended for public buildings, including a soldiers' home and an insane asylum. Before the present year comes to a close the last dollar of debt will be paid. That is Iowa's way. It has always maintained Republican administration, and has never shown even a momentary weakness on the subject or the slightest leaning towards any other party.

But Iowa has one Democratic county—the county of Dubuque. Well, what of it? Why nothing, except that the county debt of this county is over $100,000 and is increasing every year, though there has not been a public improvement made in twenty years to show for it. The ring that manages the county affairs is engaged in one steady and unrelenting steal, and the tax-payers are at their mercy.

We believe the readers of THE FREEMAN have heard of similar contrasts between the Republican way and the Democratic way before. Indeed, it appears to be ever thus. But why?

PUBLIC OPINION.

Mr. Cleveland has a stronger hold upon the affection and respect of the people of the United States than any man has enjoyed since Abraham Lincoln, and the respect increases as the character of Harrison gradually unfolds itself.—St. Louis Republic.

Well, well! That is news. Isn't it strange they didn't show some of their affection and respect by re-electing him to the Presidency? And where, by the way, does one General Grant, who really did something for the country, come in?—Rochester Herald, Ind.

It was long since established that Governor D. B. Hill is the most unconscionable demagogue who ever filled an executive chair. There is but one class of people who can rely upon him, and that is the keepers of saloons, gambling hells and the very worst and most dangerous elements of American society.—Oswego Times.

It is not at all surprising that Governor Hill should veto the Saxton electoral reform bill. The hollow pretense that he favors ballot reform has been exposed time and again. The ballot reform that Governor Hill favors will never be adopted until a Legislature assembles which is made up of a majority of saloon-keepers and plug-uglies in both branches.—New-York Graphic.

The death of James B. Smith, an editor of the Springfield Republican, killed by a brother-in-law who mistook him for a burglar; the accidental death of Captain Whittaker of Mt. Vernon, who killed himself while handling a pistol, and numerous other distressing casualties which have shocked the public recently, point the truth of the old saying that a revolver is more dangerous to the owner than to any one else.—New-York Press.

Let us hear no more of D. B. Hill as a friend of "labor." The Saxton bill was of vital importance to every wageworker. On the adoption of the Australian ballot depends the question whether he might or might not run for office without mortgaging his political soul to the devil in order to raise the sinews of political warfare. And this creature of the vilest political elements in the state has said so; that the boss, the boodler and the briber shall continue to dominate New York politics.—Albany Journal.

The Assembly yesterday knocked out the Fish committee report on the ceiling investigation, and took instead Ainsworth's "whitewashing" report. It was rumored that this "vindication" of the guilty parties cost them a large sum of money. Why they should have paid much is a mystery, for the new committee found very few facts not already known to the old one. But then the Fish committee asserted that there was a conspiracy to rob the state; and this Mr. Ainsworth and his friends denied, or at least thought not proved. Mr. Hitt's part in yesterday's transactions was very discreditable, but not unexpected.—Albany Express.

Governor Hill of New York has vetoed the Saxton electoral reform bill, pronouncing it in its present form an impossibility, and recommending the Legislature to enact during the present session a bill embodying at least those provisions which the Legislature and the Executive agree will tend to reduce the evils of political corruption. This is one of the most impudent addresses a Governor ever made to a Legislature. In effect, he is taking legislation out of the hands of the men chosen by the people to enact it, and assuming to impose his own notions upon them. In point of fact, D. B. Hill does not wish to diminish political corruption, or he would not make this preposterous demand.—Springfield Republican.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

EPOCH.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory, and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing, you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50 cents and $1 per bottle, at VanDeusen Brothers', Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke's, Kingston.

WILL YOU SUFFER with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint? Shiloh's Vitalizer is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by F. J. R. Clarke, Kingston.

100 LADIES WANTED,

And 100 men to call on any druggist for a free trial package of Lane's Family Medicine, the great root and herb remedy, discovered by Dr. Silas Lane while in the Rocky Mountains. For diseases of the blood, liver and kidneys it is a positive cure. For constipation and clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Children like it. Everyone praises it. Large-size package 50 cents. At all druggists.

SLIPPING PAST THE PALATE,

without nauseating those who take them, the little, sugar-coated Granules, known all over the land as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, produce an effect upon the bowels very different from that of a disagreeable, violent purgative. No griping or drenching follows, as in the case of a drastic cholagogue. The relief to the intestines resembles the action of Nature in her happiest moods, the impulse given to the dormant liver is of the most salutary kind, and is speedily manifested by the disappearance of all bilious symptoms. Sick headache, wind on the stomach, pain through the right side and shoulder-blade, and yellowness of the skin and eye-balls are speedily remedied by the Pellets. One a dose.

Never had a preparation a more appropriate name than Ayer's Hair Vigor. When the capillary glands become enfeebled by disease, age, or neglect, this dressing imparts renewed life to the scalp, so that the hair assumes much of its youthful fullness and beauty.

ALD BROKEN DOWN.

Is it not sad to see so many young men every day of whom this can be said? Young man, take my advice. Stop all indiscretions which you have practiced, keep good hours, retire early, and build up your shattered system by using Sulphur Bitters, which will cure you.—Old Physician.

"MY KINGDOM FOR A HORSE,"

But if he suffers from scratches, cracks, cuts, galls or wounds of any kind, Veterinary Hop Ointment is warranted to cure. Never fails. $1.00 a box. At all druggists.

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

IT IS A CURIOUS FACT

That the body is now more susceptible to benefit from medicine than any other season. Hence the importance of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla now, when it will do you the most good. It is really wonderful for purifying and enriching the blood, creating an appetite, and giving a healthy tone to the whole system. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar to itself.

NOT A PIMPLE ON HIM NOW.

Bad with Eczema. Hair all Gone. Scalp Covered with Eruptions. Thought His Hair Would Never Grow. Cured by Cuticura Remedies. Hair Splendid and Not a Pimple on Him.

I cannot say enough in praise of the Cuticura Remedies. My boy, when one year of age, was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said was scall head, and that his hair would never grow again. Desparing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the Cuticura Remedies, and, I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the Cuticura Remedies to mothers as the most speedy, economical, and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

MRS. M. E. WOODSUM, Norway, Me.

A Fever Sore Eight Years Cured.

I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who has been cured by using the Cuticura Remedies, of an old sore, caused by a long spell of sickness or fever eight years ago. He was so bad he was fearful he would have to have his leg amputated, but is happy to say he is now entirely well, sound as a dollar. He requests me to use his name, which is H. H. Cason, merchant of this place.

JOHN V. MINOR, Druggist, Gainsboro, Tenn.

Severe Scalp Disease Cured.

A few weeks ago my wife suffered very much from a cutaneous disease of the scalp, and received no relief from the various remedies she used until she tried Cuticura. The disease promptly yielded to this treatment, and in a short while she was entirely well. There has been no return of the disease, and Cuticura ranks No. 1 in our estimation for diseases of the skin.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

Cure Begins from First Application, and is Rapid, Radical And Permanent.

It is the mucous membrame, that wonderful semi-fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarah makes its stronghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals, and renders life but a long-drawn breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, trammeling the power of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, tainting the breath, and killing the refined pleasures of taste. Insidiously, by creeping on from a simple cold in the head, it assaults the membranous lining and envelopes the bones, eating through the delicate coats and causing inflammation, sloughing and other dangerous symptoms. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient, and all alleviatives are simply procrastinated sufferings. Sanford's Radical Cure, by Inhalation and by Internal administration, rarely fails; even when the disease has made frightful inroads on delicate constitutions, hearing, smell, and taste have been recovered, and the disease throughly driven out.

Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh

POTTER DRUG & CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Boston.

WEAK, PAINFUL BACKS,

If You Are Sick

With Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Blood Humors, Kidney Disease; Constipation, Female Troubles; Fever and Ague, Sleeplessness, Partial Paralysis or Nervous Prostration, use Paine's Celery Compound and be cured. In each of these the cause is mental or physical overwork, anxiety, exposure or malaria; the effect of which is to weaken the nervous system, resulting in one of these diseases. Remove the cause with that great Nerve Tonic and the result will disappear.

PAINE'S

CELERY COMPOUND

"Jas. L. Bowen, Springfield, Mass., writes: "Paine's Celery Compound cannot be excelled as a Nerve Tonic. In my case a single bottle wrought a great change. My nervousness entirely disappeared and with it the resulting affection of the stomach, heart and liver and the whole tone of the system was wonderfully invigorated. I tell my friends, if sick as I have been, Paine's Celery Compound

"Try Ayer's Pills"

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Gout. Stephen Lansing, of Yonkers, N. Y., says: "Recommended as a cure for chronic Costiveness, Ayer's Pills have relieved me from that trouble and also from Gout. If every victim of this disease would heed only three words of mine, I could banish Gout from the land. These words would be—'Try Ayer's Pills.'"

"By the use of Ayer's Pills alone, I cured myself permanently of rheumatism which had troubled me several months. These Pills are at once harmless and effectual, and, I believe, would prove a specific in all cases of incipient

Rheumatism.

No medicine could have served me in better stead."—C. C. Rock, Corner, Avoyelles Parish, La.

FOR WOMEN.

Are you wasting slowly but surely away from the effects of female weaknesses? Are you wan, pale, and nervous? Do you not sometimes feel that life is losing its attractions, and that you are gradually sinking into a decline which, if not taken in hand promptly, will end in an early death? Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy-cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. There is not a sensible maid, wife or mother who will not appreciate as more valuable than gold and precious stones Dr Fontaine's new remedy PALMETTO, which is safe, sure, and speedy in curing the worst case of female weakness.

FOUND FLOATING IN THE DELAWARE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.—The body of a young man named Paul, the son of Henry S. Paul, a wealthy resident of this City, was found in the Delaware River, near Bordentown, this morning. He graduated from Harvard College last June, after a four years' special course in chemistry. After graduating he made a tour through Europe. Two weeks ago he became ill with a brain trouble and nervousness. While attending college he became engaged to a young woman of high family of Boston, and the marriage was to have taken place soon. His affianced came on to see him last week, but the young man became worse, his physician advised that he be removed to a private insane asylum for treatment. The young man objected to this. It was then suggested that he visit his uncle, who resides at Edgewater Park, N. J. Young Paul consented and on Friday last was taken thither in charge of an attendant. Some time during that night he unlocked the door of his room and disappeared. No clue to his whereabouts was obtained until his body was found floating in the Delaware River.

TO ELEVATE "COMMON PEOPLE."

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, May 15.—Miss Jane Adams, a wealthy young lady of a philanthropic turn of mind, who has recently returned from Europe, has rented the handsome residence of the late millionaire J. C. Hull, at the corner of Palla and Halstead-streets, and proposes to entertain largely. She will not only invite her own set but the Poles, Bohemians, Germans and people of other nationalities who reside in the neighborhood. The district is not exactly a "tough" one but is peopled by the lower classes of foreigners with whom cleanliness is not a virtue. Miss Adams means to do what she can toward the elevation socially of the people among whom she is shortly to take up her residence.

A SEVERE ELECTRIC STORM.

DISPLAY OF NATURE'S FORCES 'LONG SHORE AND IN THE CATSKILLS.

Last Night Flashes of Lightning Followed One Another in Rapid Succession, and Torrents of Rain Fell—Two Storms Meet In the Catskills—On the River.

The storm along portions of the Hudson River and in adjoining localities inland was severe last night.

At one time it seemed as though the flood-gates of the heavens had been opened. Rain fell in torrents. People asleep in bed were awakened by the noise made by the water falling. The effect of the rain was seen this morning in different parts of the City.

A bolt struck the top of the high chimney of Teller Brothers' old tannery on North Front-street, Kingston, and knocked off a basketful of bricks. Several men in the vicinity say the lightning came "from a black cloud like a molten ball of fire, as large as a man's hat." When it struck the chimney, the sparks flew from it as from a red-hot iron when struck by a trip-hammer. Myron Teller, who stood nearest the chimney, felt the effects of the electric fluid. Thomas Winchell, who was mowing grass 200 feet distant, saw a ball of fire bounding towards him over the ground. He dropped his scythe and ran. The chimney which was struck is about 60 feet in height.

Just before the storm began to clear away, a few minutes before 8 o'clock, the sky in the west and south-west looked as though there had been an illumination, in which Greek fire had been used. Streaks of chain lightning added brilliancy to the magnificent meteorological effect.

Boatmen say that there was a "rough time" on the Hudson River. When the steamer "City of Kingston" reached Cornwall, on its journey north, the storm burst in all its fury. The atmosphere seemed to be surcharged with electricity, sharp flashes following one another in quick succession.

At points in the fruit-growing belt along the shore hail fell, inflicting injury on growing fruit. Part of one Concord vineyard was riddled by the hail as though by grape and canister.

In portions of the Catskills the storm was one of the severest experienced in several years. When the dark and angry clouds, surcharged with electricity, met between the mountain peaks, and the pent-up fluid was released by the contact of Nature's forces, the lightning flashes were blinding. Two storms, each traveling in a circular direction, met near Slide Mountain. There was a terrific crash, and rain fell in torrents. In localities in the mountains it looked as though there had been a cloud-burst.

NEWSPAPERS AND NEWSPAPER MEN.

A New-York City Editor's Address Last Night—The Use of Adjectives.

A newspaper man writes: "Among the smaller mannerisms of mankind there is none more closely worth observing as an instruction in character than the use of adjectives. Of women, this is still truer than of men. Adjectives were doubtless invented because we could not do without them. Among the old writers, with whom speech was 'golden,' it is curious to note how sparingly they are used, nor is diction weakened by this parsimony. Rather it is strengthened, and it may be taken as a true principal in syntax that the employment of these props to expression should be avoided wherever possible. To say that wherever an adjective is seen it should be struck out, would be too indiscriminate advice, but at least it should have its passport vised. Every unnecessary adjective weakens a sentence."

The Dartmouth Alumni lecture course, in which the speakers have all been Alumni and the lectures free, was closed last night, at Hanover, N. H., by C. R. Miller, Class of '72, Editor of the New-York Times, whose subject was, "The Art of Making a Newspaper." In the audience were many from the neighboring towns and academies. After the lecture Mr. Miller was serenaded by the college students and was given an informal reception by the local chapter of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity, which he helped found.

"What idiots they have on the newspapers nowadays!" exclaimed Hornblower. "There was a reporter in here yesterday, and I told him about the big improvements I had been making down our way. Of course I told him not to mention my name in his paper, and the blamed tool didn't.—Boston Transcript.

Oswald Ottendorfer of the New-York Staats Zeitung arrived yesterday upon the steamship Werra. His step-son, General Uhl, Paul Loeser, Dr. Senner, B. A. Gueterbock, and Coroner Ferdinand Levy went over to Hoboken to welcome him.

CITY AND SUBURBAN NEWS.

BITS OF CHAT AND GOSSIP OVERHEARD HERE TO-DAY.

A Rondout Clergyman's Views About a Growing Western City—Money Asked for By the Industrial Home Managers—Good And Bad Roadways—A New Dainty Here.

The Rev. A. K. Fuller, of the Wurts-Street Baptist Church, who has decided, after September next, to labor in Sioux Falls, Dakota, recently returned from a two weeks' visit to that growing Western City. Mr. Fuller brought home pictures of the most prominent buildings. They show imposing structures, of the latest style architecture. They are nearly all built of stone, taken from quarries on the outskirts of the place. It is called jasper, or Sioux Falls granite, said by geologists to be the hardest building stone known. Five railroads enter Sioux Falls. Six years ago a young lawyer, a friend of Mr. Fuller, went to Sioux Falls to seek his fortune. To-day he is a rich man, and has been elected to a high office in the affairs of the Territory. The President of one of the largest banks in Sioux Falls was a college classmate of Mr. Fuller, and he told his old friend that he had "struck it rich" by taking Horace Greely's advice about "going West." The future of Sioux Falls, Mr. Fuller opines, is a bright one. Residents there predict that in 10 years time it will be a City of 60,000 inhabitants.

Much is still being said about roadways, good and bad, in this City and vicinity. In other cities similar talk is heard. In discussing the matter, the Rochester Union says:

If there is any city in the world that does not complain of its pavements it would be interesting to learn where that city is and what its pavements are made of. Some cities are worse paved than others. Rochester, for instance, has a good many miles of worn-out macadam that is about as bad as any semblance of a pavement can be. But there is fair ground for arguing that no city pavement is good. They are all bad, but some are worse than others. Any pavement that is going to be in good condition in the spring and fall must be too hard to be pleasant for use in summer. Asphalt is smooth, slippery, noisy under horses' feet—though quiet for wheels—and too hard for the equine hoof. Block stone pavements are noisy for wheels, rough and uneven. Asphalt wears out your horse and stone blocks shake your carriage to pieces. Macadam, when it is new and good, is satisfactory to man and beast. Unhappily, in Rochester, it is only good while it is new. It cannot stand wet weather, and the cost of keeping it in repair makes it too costly a luxury for general use. The philosophic citizen approaches the pavement question with the conviction that all pavements are bad, and that the best he can do is to get the one that is least objectionable. Blessed are such citizens for there is some possibility that they will be satisfied.

"There are people in this City whose custom I do not care for," said a Rondout groceryman this forenoon. "They are men and women known to us tradesmen as 'feelers.' A 'feeler' is a person who enters a store and wants to feel or squeeze everything there is in it before he or she buys. Often no purchase is made. If the 'feeler' is a man he must feel of the cheese to see if it is not too soft or too hard; squeeze the apples to find out whether they are solid or not; sift the sugar through his hands, to see that there is no sand in it; pat the flour in order to see if it will lie smooth, and do a hundred and one other cranky things, before he is satisfied. Some women are worse than men in this respect."

It is pointed out that though the art of dictation is almost a new art here, yet it is spreading rapidly and certain business men are beginning to understand that much of their lives have been wasted in the mere mechanical drudgery of letter writing, and that through employing a competent amanuensis they are now enabled to get off their correspondence with the least possible friction and the smallest amount of time.

Comptroller Meyers, of New-York City, yesterday wrote to all of the heads of departments and to Senator Hendricks, of the Senate Committee on Cities, urging the passage of the bill now in that committee imposing a license fee of from $1 to $25 on the holders of sidewalk stand permits. The computed annual revenue to New-York City is $360,000. Issuing stand permits in this City would be a source of revenue.

There is a spring of pure water called the "Indian Spring," near Stumpy Field here. According to a fairy tradition it derived its name from the fact that an Indian maiden fell in the spring and was drowned. It is said that for many years after, when gazing intently on the water, a person could see her smiling face.

A large number of boys are employed on the "Island Docks" of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company here, picking slate from the coal. The little fellows return home every evening with their faces begrimed with dirt, but they make an honest living and find the business of picking slate quite remunerative.

A citizen experimented with chewing gum yesterday. Several men at work in his office were complaining of the heat and talking incessantly. He procured a few sticks of chewing gum and gave each man a piece. Soon there was silence. No one thought of the weather.

This morning an agent of a monument company placed, temporarily, two bronze figures, representing a soldier and sailor, on the porch in front of the Court House. The figures are seven feet in height and weigh 1,000 pounds each.

Bad boys place stones on the Kingston City Horse Railroad tracks. This morning a car was stopped twice going up Union-avenue hill in order that the driver could clear the tracks of stones that had been placed on the rails.

C. M. Woolsey, Chairman, and Clerk Walker, of the Board of Supervisors, and Silas Saxton, Superintendent of the Poor, met on Tuesday and audited bills to the amount of $10,000.

E. B. Litchfield, at one time identified with the Rondout & Oswego Railroad—now Ulster & Delaware Railroad—died in Brooklyn on Sunday. He was born in Delhi.

A species of vandalism practiced in this City by people whose moral character is at low ebb is entering gardens and stealing flowers and destroying plants.

People in a number of near-by localities are exercised over the question: "Shall we have a street-sprinkler?" This City can spare several of its water-squirters.

The woods on the south bank of the Rondout Creek present a handsome appearance. The recent copious rains caused all Nature to smile.

Word was received in Rondout this afternoon that Captain Edward Meyers, of Athens, is lying at the point of death.

Services will be held in St. Peter's German Catholic Church, Rondout, this evening. The Rev. J. W. Schwinn will preach.

There are a number of fine lawn tennis grounds here. Games were in progress this afternoon.

Sunday School children are talking about the near approach of the strawberry festival season.

The heavy rain of last evening did much toward cleaning streets on Rondout hillsides.

OLD SOLDIERS AND THEIR FRIENDS.

Information in Reference to Monument Project—Auxiliary Corps to Meet.

The Committee on Designs and the Commissioners and the members of the General Monumental Committee of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument for Ulster County, to be erected in this City, will meet at the Court House, Thursday night, to decide upon a monument. The following are the names of the members of the Committee: General George H. Sharpe, Augustus Schepmoes, Jervis McEntee, Charles M. Preston, the Rev. W. A. Shaw, Judge William S. Kenyon, the Rev. A. K. Fuller, Edward O'Reilly, E. B. Walker, F. J. Cheney. The Commissioners appointed by the Board of Supervisors are: J. H. Riseley, W. T. VanTassel, S. D. Burger, T. H. Tremper, C. M. Woolsey, Robert Loughran, Herman Craft. Agents representing five granite companies will exhibit designs. The amount upon which the agents have made their estimates is $7,500. Owing to the absence of the representatives of two of the granite companies, designs will not be exhibited at the Court House until to-morrow.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the One Hundred and Twentieth Regimental Union was held in Kingston to-day. Arrangements were perfected for visiting the battle-field of Gettysburg and dedicating the monument to be erected at the "angle" of the second day's battle in memory of the One Hundred and Twentieth Regiment.

The following, signed by the President and Secretary of the Regimental Union, has been sent to each member of the Regiment:

Comrade:

The One Hundred and Twentieth Regiment monument will be dedicated on the Gettysburg battle-field on Tuesday, June 25. There will probably be a special train from Kingston early on the morning of June 24, arriving at Gettysburg at 6 P. M. There will be a further notification of the details when made. Meanwhile inform all our friends and get ready to go.

General George H. Sharpe was invited to deliver the oration at the dedicatory exercises. Adjourned to meet at 7:30 this evening at the same place.

Last night the members of General Grant Post, No. 566, G. A. R., held a meeting in their rooms on The Strand. An invitation extended the Post to attend a Memorial service in the Wurts-Street Baptist Church, on May 29, by the Rev. A. K. Fuller, was accepted. On Memorial Day the Post will decorate soldiers' graves. There will be no parade by this Post in the afternoon of that day. In the evening there will be a banquet held at the Post headquarters, to which Pratt Post has been invited.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Society of General Grant Post, No. 566, G. A. R., will meet at Post Headquarters, Odd Fellows' Hall, The Strand, on Friday, May 17, at 4 P. M., to make arrangements for the celebration of Memorial Day.

ON THE DIAMOND AND RACE TRACK.

Result of yesterday's ball games: National League: At Staten Island—Cleveland 5, New-York 0. At Boston—Boston 13, Pittsburg 9. At Philadelphia—Chicago 7, Philadelphia 5. Spokane, the fast running horse, of Montana, won the Clark stakes in its race with Proctor Knott at Louisville yesterday. Before the race took place the betting was in favor of Proctor Knott.

Owing to the rain of last night the horse trot, announced to take place on Kingston Driving Park to-day, was postponed.

The members of the Sing Sing Yacht Club will hold their annual regatta on Memorial Day.

STILL FAST ON THE SOUTH DIKE HERE

The steam passenger yachts Isabella and Sylvan Shore, which were wrecked on the south dike in the Rondout Creek on Tuesday morning, still lie in the same position. Yesterday George H. Powers, of Hudson, the owner of the Isabella, and a lawyer of the same City, who is the owner of the Sylvan Shore, came to this City and looked at the propellers, after which Captain Powers telegraphed to New-York City for a steam wrecker. The engineer of the Isabella is left in charge of the sunken boats until the arrival of the wrecker, which is expected here to-morrow.

In the Ulster Surrogate's Court.

The following business has been transacted in the Ulster Surrogate's Court in Kingston:

Releases of Theodore B. Floyd, Helen C. Chichester and Sarah F. Hill to Mahaluh Floyd and Benjamin Floyd, Administrators, etc., of Charles Floyd, Shandaken, filed.

Citations issued to prove the will of Emeline B. Chichester, town of Shandaken, returnable June 10; also for judicial settlement of the estate of Abraham Weeks, of Plattekill, returnable June 3.

Letters of administration in the estate of Emeline Lord, town of Shandaken, issued to John A. Lord, of that place; also to Sarah J. Woolsey and John Titus, Jr., in the estate of Daniel I. Woolsey, town of Wawarsing.

More May Fish Stories.

Mrs. S. W. Hester, of Kingston, is 78 years old, and vigorous for her age. Yesterday she went fishing with a party at Eddyville. One of the fish she caught was a cat-fish that weighed three pounds.

A man fishing on Abbey's dock this afternoon caught a striped bass that weighed about three pounds.

Affairs of Friendly Societies.

The members of Cremieux Lodge, Knights of Honor, of Rondout, will celebrate their fifth anniversary, to-night, at Englert's Hall. The Committee of Arrangements is composed as follows: Adolph Israel, C. Liss, A. Metzgar, G. A. Woelfersheine and R. Blum.

The Royal Arch degree will be conferred in Mt. Horeb Chapter, No. 75, R. A. M., Kingston, this evening.

What William Smith Saw.

William Smith, Secretary of Ulster County Sunday Schools, has returned from the meeting of the Greene County Sunday School Association, held at Lexington. He took the route via Shandaken, and went by stage through the celebrated Westkill. Cut in the Catskill Mountains. In this gorge he found ice four feet in thickness. Mr. Smith gives a glowing description of the scenery.

Fire Over-the-River.

A fire, which is believed to have been caused by lightning, occurred last night east of Rhinebeck, Dutchess County. As the reflection of the flames were seen in this City, the building burned must have been a large one and filled with inflammable material.

The Local Shipping News.

The whistle of the steamer "City of Kingston" was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek last night at 10:25 o'clock.

There arrived at tide-water, at Eddyville, yesterday, 14 Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, laden with 1,900 tons of coal.

Took Their Own Lives.

Robert Martin, a farmer aged 70 years, hanged himself yesterday at Florida, Orange County. His mind had been affected.

General A. Anderson, of Sing Sing-on-the-Hudson, committed suicide by shooting, in Philadelphia, to-day.

Journalistic.

William W. Harding, for many years proprietor and publisher of the Philadelphia Inquirer, died this morning from a complication of diseases.

ONLY FOUR HOTEL LICENSES

GRANTED BY BOARD OF EXCISE OF THIS CITY TO-DAY.

Four More Licenses Will be Granted to Proprietors of Bona Fide Hotels—The Ultimatum of the Commissioners Announced—What Certain Disappointed Men Said.

This forenoon the Board of Excise met at the City Hall, to grant licenses. There was a large number of saloon keepers and so-called "hotel men" present. The latter were on the anxious seat.

The Chairman of the Board, John J. Groves, announced that the Commissioners had decided to grant no hotel licenses except where the parties applying for such have hotel accommodations. He also stated that the Board had decided to grant only eight hotel licenses in the entire City at the present session.

Commissioner Myers said that the following named hotels would be granted licenses: Mansion House, Bronson's Hotel, Fisher's Hotel, Washington Hall, Kingston Hotel, Eagle Hotel, Clinton Hotel, Lasher's Hotel.

Of these eight, the proprietors of Bronson's Hotel, Fisher's Hotel, Washington Hall and Eagle Hotel, made application for licenses. The Board granted the applications.

Nicholas Matthews, James Serfienth, Jacob Ludwig, John Dempsey, Frederick Bauer, Louis Drautz, Joseph A. Costello, Seba Tiencken, Michael Flick, Ferdinand Myer, Patrick Fitzgerald, Peter Luettgen, J. H. Dithus, Joseph W. Scully, Ernest Steuding, Philip Cullen, James Cullen, Sisman Newland, Ida Fischer, John Weiss, Michael Henry, Albert Adams, Walter Simpson & Co., P. J. O'Pray, Michael Phelan, Eagle Hotel, W. P. Cole, Peter Barmann, George N. Tietjen, Otto Lang, Thomas Burke, Thomas Rigney.

When the Chairman had ceased talking the Commissioners were surrounded by applicants for hotel licenses. Nicholas Matthews, who keeps a "place" in Ponckhockie, said that he had ample accommodations for a hotel, and that he was entitled to a license. One of the Commissioners, on behalf of the Board, replied that it was the Board's duty to weigh matters. Matthews took a back seat. Ferdinand Meyer, who runs a "place" at the junction of Hasbrouck and Delaware-avenues, demurred against the action of the Board. He said that he had kept a saloon or hotel for the past 25 years and that he had always obeyed the law. He asserted that he had accommodations for a hotel and invited the Commissioners to "call around" and inspect his house. He concluded by demanding to know the reason why he should not be granted a hotel license. The Chairman told Meyer that the Commissioners were going to obey the law as nearly as possible, and would not shirk their duty. Mr. Groves also stated that it did not follow because a person had all the requirements for a hotel that he must be granted a license. Whether the neighborhood, in which the applicant intended doing business, needed a hotel would be considered.

Failing to secure hotel licenses, a number of applicants "took out" ale and beer licenses. Other applicants for hotel licenses went into the hallway and discussed the situation. The action taken by the Evangelical Alliance before the Board about a week ago was bitterly denounced, one man saying that the ministers were getting too officious "sticking their noses in everywhere."

Drug licenses were granted as follows: F. J. R. Clark and Cooper & Hardenburgh.

NOTES ABOUT CURRENT LITERATURE.

Work of a Former Lady Resident of Milton, Ulster County—Articles in Magazines.

The editor of the Magazine of American History has another chapter of centennial information in the May number, "Washington's Historical Luncheon in Elizabeth." The illustrations include a sketch of the Boudinot mansion, in which the luncheon took place, and engravings of the old china and silverware used on that memorable occasion. This same table service is in perfect preservation, and was placed before President Harrison at the luncheon given in his honor on April 29, 1889. "Oak Hill, House of President Monroe," is also by the editor. Mrs. Lamb's style of description is so captivating, and there is such a subtle charm in her gossipy way of telling things, that these two papers might make up a whole number—but they don't. They are only a half of its wealth. We can only mention two more, "The Harrison's History," by Mrs. Ella B. Washington, and "Reminiscences of Mrs. Bradford," the last of the Washington Circle, by J. J. Boudinot.

The most remote point reached by George Kennan in his Siberian trip was the mines of Kara, 5,000 miles from St. Petersburg and about 1,000 from the Pacific coast. The narrative of his adventures and discoveries at these mines will begin in the June Century and be continued through several numbers. It may be said to mark the culmination of Mr. Kennan's papers. The mines of Kara are the private property of His Majesty the Tsar, and are worked for his benefit, and it is to them that the "Nihilists" are sent when the Tsar is pleased to commute a death sentence to penal servitude in the mines. Hence an unusual number of political prisoners are gathered at Kara, and Mr. Kennan made the best use of his time while there to make their acquaintance and obtain trustworthy information regarding their life.

The May St. Nicholas has a frontispiece drawn by Mary Hallock Foote, formerly of Milton, Ulster County, called "The Babies' Sunny Corner." "The Belles of St. Anne," by Mrs. Catherwood, is concluded. Tudor Jenks has a funny little story of "A Lost Opportunity," illustrated by Birch. "Daddy Jake, the Runaway," by Joel Chandler Harris, ends in this number and contains one of "Uncle Remus's" delightful stories. "A Bit of Color," by Sarah Orne Jewett, grows more interesting each month. E. H. Barbour describes the short life of "A Queer Pet," a two-headed turtle. This number is full of pretty rhymes and pictures.

Wide Awake for May is an excellent number.

Record of Amusements Here.

Concerning the play and the players to be on the boards at Liscomb's Opera House on Tuesday evening, May 21, the Syracuse Courier has printed this:

A new version of Robert Louis Stevenson's weird novel, "The Strange Case of Jekyll and Hyde," was placed upon the stage for the first time last night. Under the title of "Good Against Evil"—Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde—a new impersonator of the benign Jekyll and the monstrous Hyde came forth, and, in the metaphysical as well as the theatrical aspect of the dual role, triumphed in a notable degree. The author had declared in advance that his conception of the work is the result of his own study of the novel, utterly unaffected by Mr. Mansfield's prior presentation of a stage version. It was conceded by those of last night's audience, who were prepared to institute the comparison, that Mr. Davidson had not borrowed of Mansfield.

Barnum & Bailey's show will be exhibited in this City on Friday, May 24. The attractions to be presented are greater and more varied than ever before.

"Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works" will attract a large audience to Washington Hall on Tuesday evening next.

Churchmen Compare Notes.

The State Conference of Unitarian Churches closed its spring meeting in Troy to-day. The churches of New-York, Brooklyn, Yonkers, Pittsfield, Mass., and Trenton, N. J., were represented. Essays were read and discussed. It was decided to hold the annual State Convention in New-York during the first week in November.

The New-York Conference of the A. M. E. Church was opened to-day, at noon, in the Zion A. M. E. Church, at Troy. Bishop J. W. Hood, D. D., of North-Carolina, presided. About 50 delegates are present representing 32 churches, with a church attendance of 15,000.

IMPORTANT TO RAILROAD MEN.

A. E. Smith has been for forty-nine years road master on the Boston & Maine system and is now residing at Great Falls, N. H. He says trackmen, brakemen, firemen, engineers and conductors, as well as baggage masters and expressmen, are subject to kidney disease above all others. All, therefore, will be interested in the statement of his experience. "I have used Brown's Sarsaparilla for kidney and liver troubles, and can truly say it has done more for me than all the doctors I ever employed, and I have had occasion to require the services of the best physicians in the State. My wife also has been greatly benefited by its use.

A. E. SMITH,
Road Master B. & M. R. R."

The kidneys have been labored hard all winter, as the pores of the skin have been closed, but now the springtime has come, and they need some aid. May be you have that pain across the back; that tired feeling; those drawing down pains. If so, you can get immediate relief by following the example of Mr. Smith and his wife, and use that never-failing and grand corrector for the kidneys, liver and blood.
